China's Army Flees Along Entire Line Before Major Push

Thousands of New Men Land and Break Defenses of Chinese From Woosung to Chapei; 1,800 Men Dead on Field.

DUEL OF BIG GUNS SHAKES ALL FRONT

Both Countries Agree to League Peace Proposals But Bloodiest Battle of Campaign Rages.

SHANGHAI, March 2.—(Wednesday.)—China's army broke and fled today from the Chapei-Kiangwan line in front of Japan's mounting force of arms and men.

A Japanese spearhead occupied Tachang, four miles west of Kiangwan. The Japanese also said they occupied Miaochungchen, northward on the advancing battle line.

The Chinese, fleeing northward and westward, were completely demoralized, the enemy said, as the Japanese pursued them.

Observers said the Chinese were in retreat toward Nanziang, five miles west of Chapei, their headquarters, and Kunshan, farther west.

Their front line defenders in Chapei withdrew, apparently, fearing a fast-advancing Japanese right wing would trap them against the International Settlement.

Japanese airmen bombed Tachang and Chinese positions in Chapei to help drive the routed defenders westward.

The Chinese 19th route army was flung back at a cost of 1,800 lives, the Japanese said, while they lost only 90 dead.

Another battle was under way near Liuho, 20 miles north of Shanghai, where Japanese fliers bombed Chinese troops attempting to block thousands of landing Japanese reinforcements fighting their way through Chinese fire to join the left flank of their comrades.

Six Japanese airplanes bombed the Shanghai-Nankang railway near Kunshan, 35 miles west of Shanghai, and cut the line about midway between the two cities.

They had threatened to destroy the railway if the Chinese continued to surround of the conflict's beginning more than a month ago.

At Shanghai, peace negotiations were at a standstill, but the Japanese government announced it had accepted the League of Nations proposal for an international conference to end the conflict.

Various government spokesmen at Tokyo made it clear, however, that Japan believed a decisive victory in the field would be necessary to pave the way for the conference. Japan's acceptance of the League proposal was presented at Geneva.

The battle shook everything with-

734 NEW NAMES ADDED BY LABOR TO RECALL LISTS

Signatures 608 Over Minimum; Tatum Will Check Names Today; Inquiry of Forgery Set.

Spurred to renewed activity by the rapid melting of their recall petition, leaders of the Atlanta Federation of Trades late Tuesday afternoon filed an additional 734 names, sufficient to bring the total to 1,342.

A complete detail of the names will be filed in the city hall tomorrow, according to Luke S. Arnold, secretary to Mayor Key.

The supplementary list was filed with City Clerk J. Henson Tatum by J. A. (Gus) Harper, vice president of the federation and chairman of the recall committee.

Bulldogs Beat Tarheels, 26 to 24, Win Cage Title

Georgia University won its first Southern conference basketball championship Tuesday night, with a 26-to-24 victory over the University of North Carolina before a packed house at the city auditorium.

It was one of the greatest games of the tournament, which started last Friday afternoon, and was featured by the excellent defensive work of both teams.

The Bulldogs jumped into a seven-point lead at the start but after the Tarheels tied the count at 9-all there was never more than two points' difference.

So intense was the battle that two players were removed from the game from exhaustion.

A complete detail of the game will be found in The Constitution Sports Section.

SMITH ENTERS MASSACHUSETTS PRIMARY LISTS

Question of Possible Contest Between '28 Standard Bearer and Roosevelt Still Uncertain.

BOSTON, March 1.—(AP)—Alfred E. Smith was formally listed today as a candidate for the democratic presidential nomination in the Massachusetts primary on April 26.

Smith's assent to the use of his name by those seeking places on the state's delegation to the national convention, required under Massachusetts law before delegates may be pledged, was received by Frank J. Donahue, democratic state chairman.

With this letter of consent, in which said "I would not be interpreted as hampering in any way the desire of my friends in Massachusetts to express their sentiment for me" as a candidate for the national convention, Donahue to file Smith's assent to the use of his name with the secretary of state.

The 1928 standard-bearer's action assured a Smith-pledged slate of candidates for delegates-at-large and for district delegates, supported by a majority of the party leaders, including Governor Joseph B. Ely and Senator David I. Walsh.

While the Smith letter cleared the democratic political atmosphere to some extent, it still left uncertain the question of a possible contest between Smith and Franklin D. Roosevelt for the Massachusetts delegation.

Thus far Roosevelt has not indicated whether he would enter the state primary in a campaign for delegates but party leaders tonight expressed doubt that his name would go before the voters.

Mayor James M. Curley, of Boston, is leading the Roosevelt movement in the state. The governor's son, James, also is active.

Smith's letter, consenting to the use of his name, was written in reply to a request from Donahue for his formal assent to the use of his name as a purely technical requirement.

"You know that Massachusetts will never be content to enter a democratic national convention without a pledge of support from the state," Donahue wrote.

"In order to be able to do this to the satisfaction of the democratic vote."

PETITION ASSURES HOUSE PROHIBIT VOTE ON STATE CONTROL

Wet Bloc Jubilant as Mansfield, Cripple Representative, Affixes 145th Signature.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—(AP)—A house vote on considering a bill to give control of liquor to the states was assured today.

The wet bloc obtained 145 signatures upon a petition to withdraw from the judiciary committee a resolution to bring this about. As a result, a vote will be taken automatically on March 14 on the question whether the measure will be placed upon the calendar of the house for its consideration.

In previous congresses, 275 petitions, one more than a majority, have been necessary to discharge a committee from consideration of a bill. At the outset of this session, the number was reduced to 145.

Immediately after a sufficient number had signed, Representatives Linthicum, of Maryland, and Beck, of Pennsylvania, leaders of the democratic and republican wet organizations, respectively, issued a statement saying the vote March 14 will show "the American people exactly how very representative stands on the vital question." They added:

"Pleased With Success.
"We are naturally gratified with the speedy success of our movement to bring the matter of the repeal of the eighteenth amendment before the house of representatives for submission to the people. . . . We believe a new chapter was opened today in the history of this controversy and the success of our efforts is assured."

They called their wet groups to meet tomorrow to consider a bill to increase federal revenues by $500,000,000 through an excise tax on beer and other malted beverages of non-intoxicating alcoholic content. If necessary to force action on it, they plan to resort to the petition method of bringing it before the house.

The petition was placed on the speaker's desk last Thursday after the judiciary committee had declined to report the proposed constitutional amendment by a vote of 14 to 9. On the first day, 108 signed. This number was increased to 139 by last night.

(Copyright, 1932, by The Associated Press.)

HOPEWELL, N. J., March 2. (Wednesday.)—(AP)—Charles Augustus Lindbergh Jr., 20-month-old son of the Flying Colonel, was kidnaped last night from his nursery in the Lindbergh home near here.

The 20-month-old child, a golden-haired, chubby youngster, was taken some time between 7:30 and 10 p. m. An unprecedented search began as the frantic parents notified police. Authorities of New Jersey, New York and Pennsylvania combed their territory all night but early today the criminals were still unbound.

The baby was spirited away in an automobile, police believed, and the possibility that a woman was one of the criminals cropped up when feminine footprints were found on the 550-acre Lindbergh estate on Gloomy Sourland mountain.

A man's tracks were also discovered. Another man was believed to have waited in the car while the child, wrapped in night clothes, was snatched away from the nursery. An automobile containing two men stopped two persons before the kidnaping and inquired the way to the Lindbergh estate.

While the kidnapers took "the world's newest baby," the Flying Colonel and his wife were enjoying a late dinner downstairs. Within an hour after Colonel Lindbergh himself telephoned the first alarm, police squad cars blocked every Jersey road for miles. They had orders to stop any suspicious persons or cars.

The child, clad in a blue sleeping robe, was put to bed at the usual hour, 7:30 p. m. At about 10 p. m.

Wife of Minister Denied Divorce; Faints as Judge Reveals Verdict

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 1.—(AP)—Mrs. Ellen M. Noel late today was denied a divorce from the very Rev. I. H. Noel, dean of St. Mary's Episcopal cathedral.

Chancellor M. C. Ketchum took both parties by surprise when he dismissed Mrs. Noel's petition immediately after the conclusion of argument by attorneys.

It is not necessary to take this case under advisement," Chancellor Ketchum said. "There can be no satisfactory solution of a case of this sort. The bill is dismissed."

Mrs. Noel asked a divorce on grounds of cruel and inhuman treatment, abandonment and non-support and willful desertion.

Constitution's Cook School Fills Theater to Capacity

Virtually every seat was taken, even to the topmost gallery, when The Constitution's Cooking School was formally opened to the Atlanta public on Tuesday morning at Keith's Georgia theater. The accompanying photograph tells the story of the success of the school.

Anticipating a great gathering, one of the largest ever seen at an Atlanta cooking school, the management of the theater opened the doors at 8:30 o'clock, so that the audience could obtain seats before the demonstration began. As it was, the first floor was filled quickly, and the overflow had to be taken care of in the balcony, gallery and boxes.

Mrs. S. V. Sanford, president of the Georgia Federation of Women's Clubs, the hostess for the first session, introduced Miss Claire Andrews, expert of the DeBott Home Makers School, which is handling the school for The Constitution, who will demonstrate and lecture at every session.

Following this a style show was staged. Miss Andrews then announced several recipes, and with demonstration and oral description showed her audience how they could be prepared.

Leaders of 60 Roosevelt Clubs Will Assemble in Atlanta Today

Presidents of three-score Roosevelt-For-President clubs will meet at noon today in the Piedmont hotel with W. E. Page, in charge of Georgia headquarters, and Judge C. F. McLaughlin, chairman of the speakers' bureau, to discuss plans for making a clean sweep in the March 22 primaries.

Most of the clubs have been functioning for the past year, but officials of several others, formed since the Roosevelt movement was officially launched last week, also will be in attendance.

Progress of the campaign to date has been "entirely satisfactory," Page said Tuesday. Reports from most of the 150 counties, he said, indicated strong local organizations and clubs which haven't organized "are equally as favorable to the nomination of the New York governor."

Page was advised Tuesday that Gilmer county, which has never "gone"

Leaders of 60 Roosevelt Clubs Will Assemble in Atlanta Today

democratic in a national election, will do so this fall if the party nominates the New York governor.

Watkins, Edwards, Gilmer county representative in the general assembly, brought the optimistic tidings to Governor Roosevelt's personal representative in Georgia, Edwards also told Page that other north Georgia counties, accustomed to voting for the republican nominee, will vote for Roosevelt this time.

Roosevelt strength among the democrats of Gilmer and other north Georgia counties is practically solid, Edwards said, with only an exceptional preference for Newton D. Baker or Governor W. H. Murray. The fact that Baker is not a candidate and that Murray will not seek votes in Georgia means, in Edwards' opinion, that the scattered supporters of these two will turn to Roosevelt of the Georgia primary March 23.

Irish Theater Development Credited to Abbey Players

Michael J. Dolan and F. J. McCormick of the Abbey Theater Irish Players in "The Rising of the Moon," by Lady Gregory.

Students of the modern drama have all conceded that one of the most interest phases of the playwrighting art has been the development, during the past few decades, of the Irish theater. Some of the greatest names in the modern theater are found in the list of Irish playwrights. The Abbey Theater Irish Players, who come to the Erlanger for four performances, giving five plays, this week beginning Thursday, have had more to do with the development of the Irish theater than any other group. Their home theater is the Abbey theater at Dublin, the national theater of the Irish Free State's government. It is only by special permission of that government, granted after the closing for the season of the Abbey theater, that they are able to make this American tour, their first visit to this country in 17 years.

Included in their roster of players are many names which, on Broadway, would call for the brightest of electric lights but, under the no-starring system under which the Abbey Players operate, are simply "members of the company."

The engagement at the Erlanger theater is under the sponsorship of three of Atlanta's large institutions of learning and of the Alkahest Bureau. Tickets are now on sale at the Erlanger box office daily from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m., or they may be secured from any of the sponsoring organizations. Mail orders will be filled in order of receipt if sent to Russell Bridges, Mortgage Guarantee Building.

The schedule of performances for the engagement at the Erlanger follows:

Thursday night, "The Whitehead Boy," by Lennox Robinson. Sponsored by Emory University Lecture Association.

Friday night, "The Far-Off Hills," by Lennox Robinson. Sponsored by Agnes Scott University Lecture Association.

Saturday matinee, "The Rising of the Moon," by Lady Gregory, and "The Playboy of the Western World," by J. M. Synge, sponsored by Georgia Tech.

Saturday night, "Juno and the Paycock," by Sean O'Casey, sponsored by the Alkahest Bureau.

LOUIS TAUBE'S BAIL DOUBLED BY JUDGE

NEW YORK, March 1.—(AP)—The $10,000 bail of Louis (The Dove) Taube, who had sought a reduction, was raised to $20,000 today by Supreme Court Justice Aaron J. Levy. Taube, who disappeared in October, 1930, during the investigation of magistrates' courts, recently was brought back from Florida and held in $5,000 bail each on two misdemeanor indictments, one for conspiracy and the other for failing to answer a subpoena.

DR. J. H. HINES NAMED GRADY MEDICAL HEAD

Member of Staff for Many Years To Get New Full-Time Position.

Dr. J. H. Hines, a member of the Grady hospital visiting staff for many years, Tuesday assumed his duties in the newly created position of superintendent of medical service of the city hospital. His appointment was made recently by the Grady board of trustees.

Dr. Hines will report to J. B. Franklin, general superintendent of the hospital. He will make his residence in the hospital as soon as suitable quarters can be arranged, it was said.

Trustees of the hospital have felt for some time that the medical service given to the patients could be greatly improved through appointment of a full-time, experienced physician to coordinate and increase effectiveness of the medical service rendered by various consulting and visiting members of the staff and the resident physicians. It was said, Dr. Hines served overseas during the World War, and for a time was in charge of the government naval hospital at Key West, Fla.

500 JOBS OPEN SOON, LABOR REPORT SAYS

Employment conditions in Atlanta are expected to show improvement during the next 60 days when building projects will keep 500 men at work to augment the 250 who have been engaged in construction operations during the last 30 days, according to a summary issued by Otto F. Bading, state director of federal employment service.

Mr. Bading said that compared to previous months, the employment situation in February showed no improvement and that a general labor surplus prevailed. A majority of the city's industrial plants operated on part-time schedules with curtailed forces engaged. He said that only in those localities where federal construction was under way was there a noticeable change in conditions during last month.

BOTTLE STARTED IN '26 FINALLY SPANS OCEAN

BALTIMORE, March 1.—(AP)—A sealed bottle dropped into the Atlantic ocean July 6, 1926, by Gustav J. Erick, of Baltimore, while he was three days out of Hoboken, was picked up on the southwest coast of Ireland last February 6, according to information received here today.

Erick received a letter from Thomas J. Jernyn, at Skibbereen, county Cork, Ireland, saying the bottle was washed ashore in Crookhaven harbor. Inside was Erick's address.

CAROLINA REFUSES TO RESTORE WAGE CUTS
COLUMBIA, S. C., March 1.—(AP)—By a vote of 22 to 13 the senate refused today to restore the salaries of constitutional officers to the figure guaranteed by the constitution. Cuts recommended by the senate financing committee will save the state $35,400. Included in the officeholders affected are the governor and superintendent of schools.

Armed Robbers Seize $2,000 Hidden in Barn
ERIN, Tenn., March 1.—(AP)—The manager of John Henry Bateman's barn yielded $2,000 in gold to five armed robbers, who, hearing of his distrust of banks, called on him in the night and forced the farmer to reveal the hiding place of his life's savings. Some time ago Bateman decided to withdraw the money from his bank and hide it in the barn.

Reparations Are Now Pure Politics--France

PARIS, March 1.—(AP)—A growing desire to settle the reparations problem on the basis that it has ceased to be a financial question and has become primarily a political one, was reported in diplomatic circles tonight. Premier Andre Tardieu, who had returned from the world disarmament conference at Geneva, had a conference tonight with Leopold von Hoesch, the German ambassador, and Andre Francois-Poncet, French ambassador to Berlin.

Afterward the French ambassador returned to Berlin with instructions to push for a workable agreement with Germany on various problems, including reparations. Germany has declared a financial inability to make further reparations payments.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—(AP)—Former Governor Moody, of Texas, sought supreme court action today for suspension of the injunction against martial law in east Texas oil fields.

Critic of Critics Made Target Of Retaliative Volley by Victim

George Jean Nathan, once literary associate of H. L. Mencken and considered by many to be America's foremost dramatic critic, has written a reply to the accusation of Representative William L. Stowitch that the destructive play critics are "graduate descriptions of prizefights and horse races." Nathan, the only critic mentioned by name in Stowitch's speech before the house committee, is dramatic critic for the magazine Vanity Fair.

BY GEORGE JEAN NATHAN.
Written for The United Press.

NEW YORK, March 1.—While I decline to comment upon the M. Stowitch's uproarious eloquence, inasmuch as he is simply an inferior and disappointed playwright and hence naturally outraged by the performances upon him of critical duty, his views are in a measure the views of certain less personally prejudiced (if similarly not too intellectually gifted) persons, and so may be scrutinized with some slight profit.

Dramatic criticism has not ruined the New York theater so much as the New York theater has ruined dramatic criticism. The local theater has, because of the painfully low quality of the dramatic fare it divulges, made anything remotely approaching reputable dramatic criticism uncalculated, unnecessary, and a waste of intelligent effort.

That some of this journalistic reviewing, despite its honesty, is sadly defective is not to be gainsaid, but nothing in this world, alas, is perfect, including the opinions of cheap politicians on journalistic reviewing.

A man who has reviewed prizefights, for example, may not constitute a satisfactory reviewer of plays, but the fact that he has reviewed prizefights is, in itself, no argument against his possible ability to review plays. He may not be able acutely to review plays if, instead of having antecedently been a reporter of prizefights, he has been a professor of mathematics at a great university, a justice of the supreme court, or a fine portrait painter.

George Bernard Shaw, for instance, has reported prizefights and is nonetheless still an excellent dramatic critic. Some of the poorest dramatic critics who ever lived have been the world's best poets and novelists.

Dramatic criticism, that is, sound and true dramatic criticism, has literally made over the American drama from the mush-ketch it was into the approximation to something worthy and reputable that it is beginning to be.

In order to continue the good work, it is necessary for dramatic criticism to show no mercy toward what still persists of the ignorant old order and to butcher it to death as quickly as possible, and with every means at its disposal. If, in the process, it bankrupts the theater and the men that stand in the way of advancement, so much the better.

The theater is an institution in which dramatic criticism worth its salt takes a high and proud interest. And, taking this high and proud interest, it is incumbent upon it to ridicule out of it, to cannonade out of it, to murder out of it, all its mountebanks, shysters and pretenders.

NEW REVENUE BILL READY FOR ACTION

Manufactures Sales and Excise Taxes Contained in Completed Draft.

WASHINGTON, March 1.—(AP)—The first completed draft of the new revenue bill containing a manufacturer's sales and excise taxes will be laid before the full house ways and means committee tomorrow by acting Chairman Crisp.

A subcommittee today unanimously approved a 2 per cent manufacturer's sales tax with an estimated yield of $525,000,000 and excise levies to bring in about $300,000,000. Increases in incomes, estate and gift taxes are expected to produce $200,000,000.

Recommendations for these taxes will be considered by the committee with a view to their approval before Saturday, when Crisp plans to introduce the measure. The Georgia democrat hopes it can receive house consideration early next week. It is a privileged question and has right of way over all other legislation.

The total of the bill is expected to amount to nearly $1,100,000,000, although the prospective treasury deficit for the fiscal year is $1,241,000,000. Crisp explained that while it would be sufficient to balance next year's budget the committee based the levies on a prospective saving of $125,000,000 on government expenses and $25,000,000 in operation of the postoffice department.

Administrative changes in existing law to stop leaks in tax payments have been written into the new draft with a view to increasing revenue by $100,000,000, Crisp explained. With the exception of a few minor matters relating to the administrative features the bill is complete.

MERGER APPROVED BY PRAIRIE OIL, GAS

INDEPENDENCE, Kan., March 1.—(AP)—Stockholders of the Prairie Oil & Gas Company today voted approval of the proposed consolidation of that company with the Prairie Pipe Line Company and the Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation.

Ratification of the half-billion dollar Prairie-Sinclair oil merger was completed here tonight. Approval of 88.17 per cent of stockholders of the Prairie Pipe Line Company followed by similar action today of stockholders of Prairie Oil and Gas Company and Sinclair Consolidated Oil Corporation.

Awaits Extradition.

NEW YORK, March 1.—(AP)—Warren B. Smith, whose correct name was said to be Brinson B. Smith, was surrendered today to Sheriff H. J. Stockard, of Alamance county, North Carolina, for extradition on a larceny charge.

Arkansas Teachers Barred From Politics

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., March 1.—(AP)—It will cost University of Arkansas staff members their jobs to take active parts in state politics during the coming campaign. A resolution to this effect was passed by the board of trustees here, by a vote of five to four. It did not bar participation in county or municipal affairs.

LUKE LEA'S APPEAL STILL UNDECIDED

RALPHIGH, N. C., March 1.—(AP)—The North Carolina supreme court adjourned today's session without reaching the appeal of Colonel Luke Lea, Tennessee financier, under a prison sentence from Buncombe county for violation of state banking laws. Court attaches said arguments in the Lea case would begin tomorrow morning.

Peterson and Milton Clash Over Causes of Lynchings

Complaints Filed by Editor in Letters to Governor Russell and Williams.

Chattanooga Leader Firm in Belief in Effect of Economic Conditions.

MOUNT VERNON, Ga., March 1. (AP)—Complaint at a recent speech by George Fort Milton, editor of the Chattanooga News, in which he quoted the report of a lynching commission investigator on social and economic conditions in Montgomery county, Georgia, has been voiced by Hugh Peterson, editor of the Montgomery Monitor, in a letter to Governor Russell.

Mr. Milton spoke February 19 at the Institute of the Georgia Press Association, which met at the University of Georgia in Athens. Mr. Peterson, who is a member of the general assembly and a brother-in-law of the governor, said a newspaper article on Mr. Milton's address conveyed an impression of "Montgomery county facts" which was not justified.

Mr. Peterson also wrote regarding the speech to Jack Williams, editor of the Waycross Journal-Herald, president of the Georgia Press Association; Hal Stanley, of Atlanta, secretary of the association, and to W. D. Anderson, of Macon, chairman of the board of regents of the University of Georgia.

In his letter to the governor he asked that the attention of the board of regents "and have proper action taken to correct this propaganda, which is false, contrary to facts and an insult to the honor and integrity of our people."

The Monitor's editor charged that "this propaganda is sponsored by the state university, which is supported by the taxpayers of Montgomery and other counties of the state."

In his address Mr. Milton said evidence had been found indicating a "greater likelihood of lynchings in communities living upon the border of hunger and of heartbreak." He said a negro politician had been slain at Ailey, in Montgomery county, and that although "there was some question" whether it was a murder or a lynching, the question "does not interfere with the economic analysis."

From a report of an investigator of the southern commission on the study of lynching, he quoted: "The poor whites of Montgomery and surrounding counties are poor indeed. They are emaciated looking and they, with their wives and children, crowd old white young. Mothers with sunken chests and practically no teeth. Little babies in arms with scabs on their heads and running sores about their ears, boys chewing tobacco before they are half grown and girls staring and popping their gums, and men, women and children with dirty clothes and unkempt persons seeking fatalism and pessimism are to be seen on every hand. There is much of frontier in this part of Georgia, the virility of the frontier lacking."

The Chattanooga editor said solution of the lynching problem calls for quickening of the machinery of the law to prevent threatened lynchings and when they are not prevented to punish their perpetrators. He said the more important phase of the problem is to reorganize the social viewpoint of the south.

This, he added, "involves substituting satisfaction and contentment for hunger and heart-break in such places as Ocala, Ailey and Dalton." In his letter to Mr. Williams, Mr. Peterson demanded that the president bring this matter "to the immediate attention of the association and take proper action to correct this propaganda, which is false, contrary to facts and an insult to the honor and integrity of our people."

WESLEYAN STUDENTS PICK MISS HERNDON

MACON, Ga., March 1. (AP)—Miss Anne Herndon, Elberton, was today elected president of the Student Government of Wesleyan College.

She has been secretary of the association since the beginning of this school year.

She and other officers chosen will begin their duties immediately after the close of the spring vacations, March 23.

Others selected were Miss Frances Cook, North Fork, W. Va., vice president; Miss Mary Lyles Aiken, Florence, S. C., secretary; Miss Maurine Mobley, Fort Gaines, Ga., treasurer; Miss Lois Daniel, Cartersville, alumnae representative; Miss Lorena Thomas, Quitman, senior representative; Miss Helen Bennett, Savannah, junior representative, and Miss Helen Olliff, Statesboro, sophomore representative.

POLICE DEPARTMENT GIVES ANNUAL REPORT

VALDOSTA, Ga., March 1.—The annual report of the police department for the year closing yesterday shows that more arrests on state cases were made during the year than for violations of city laws.

The showing is regarded as a most unusual one, and also illustrates that infractions of city ordinances are less numerous than they have ever been over a period of 12 months.

State Deaths And Funerals

JAMES P. WALLACE. THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 1.—The body of James P. Wallace, 80, Rock Island (Ill.) citizen, was prepared here for burial Monday and will be forwarded to his western home. He died Sunday morning at the Thomasville home of J. P. Lamb, where he was boarding, following a heart attack that came last Tuesday. He had just arrived here the day previous, coming in a large automobile, and intended stopping for just one night, but was too ill the next day to continue his journey. He was between 45 and 50 years of age, and information is that he has a wife and one child in Illinois.

A. J. CORBETT. VALDOSTA, Ga., March 1.—Funeral services were held today at the Carter cemetery in Echols county for Corbett, aged 73, whose death occurred yesterday at his home in Echols county. The funeral services were conducted by Elder Orville Knight, of Lakeland. Mr. Corbett is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. Amanda Westberry and Mrs. Stephen Carter, of Lake Park; three sons, James Corbett, of Macon; W. H. Corbett, of Jaspaga, Fla.; and Leslie Corbett, of Lowndes county, and a large family connection.

H. M. REDDICK. VALDOSTA, Ga., March 1.—Funeral services were held this afternoon for H. M. Reddick, aged 29, well-known Valdosta automobile dealer, whose death occurred yesterday at a local hospital. Besides his widow, Mr. Reddick is survived by two children, Haynes Reddick and Josephine Reddick. Following the funeral services at the home the interment was in Sunset Hill cemetery.

D. E. CROSBY. VALDOSTA, Ga., March 1.—Funeral services were held today at the local cemetery for D. E. Crosby, aged 78, whose death occurred yesterday at the home of his son in this city. Mr. Crosby has made his home in Valdosta for about three years. Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. Ollie Reed, Valdosta; Mrs. Texas Begles, Lanier county; Mrs. Jennie Bell, East Point, Fla.; Mrs. Lilly Crosby, of Cecil; four sons, A. H. Crosby and Dewey Crosby, of Valdosta; Walter Crosby, of East Point, Fla.; Harry Crosby, of Lanier county. He is also survived by one brother, T. A. Crosby, of Valdosta.

Roosevelt Lauded In Charge of Judge

WEST POINT, Ga., March 1. Judge S. L. Brewer, presiding over circuit court at LaFayette, Ala., this week, in his charge to the grand jury paid tribute to some of the outstanding figures in America's history. He spoke of George Washington, Robert E. Lee and Theodore Roosevelt, and added: "There is another Roosevelt—Franklin Roosevelt, governor of New York—a great benefactor of mankind and who, it would appear, would also make a good president."

ROME CITIZENS JOIN BIG MOTORCADE TODAY

ROME, Ga., March 1. (AP)—A group of Rome citizens will join in a motorcade tomorrow morning which will go to Albany for a meeting of the Telford Memorial Highway Association Wednesday evening.

The local group is to join a motorcade that is expected to include cars from Michigan, Ohio, Kentucky, Tennessee and Georgia.

The motorcade is due here Wednesday morning from Chattanooga and its route through Georgia will include Cedartown, Carrollton, LaGrange, Albany and others along the proposed highway which will stretch from Michigan to Florida.

Sergeant Alvin York, World War hero, will be among the Tennessee citizens taking part.

Among the Romans who will make trip to Albany are Barry Wright and W. F. Barrow, members of the executive board of the highway association.

BARN IS BURNED AS OWNER FAILS TO HEED THREATS

LOUISVILLE, Ga., March 1.—Following a threatening letter received some 10 days ago in which he was ordered to leave the county, Dr. J. W. Dorman, living near here, awoke shortly after midnight this morning to discover his barn afire and two men running from his premises. He fired at them as they ran.

The blaze at his barn was put out without much damage. A call to Millerville brought bloodhounds from the state farm and the trail was taken up immediately and lost a quarter mile away, the highway, indicating that the men had entered an automobile in their getaway. Dr. Dorman came to this section from Concord, N. C., about a year ago.

MAJOR W. W. GORDON DIES AT SAVANNAH

SAVANNAH, Ga., March 1. (AP)—Major William Washington Gordon died this afternoon at his residence in Gordonston. He had been ill a long time.

Major Gordon was one of Savannah's best known citizens. He was a member of the bar and had been active in his profession and in the business, military and cultural life of Savannah. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American War and after 20 years' service in the Georgia state cavalry, retiring with the rank of major.

Major Gordon was a former president of the Georgia Historical Society and of the Poetry Society of Georgia. He was a graduate of Yale University, the Columbia law school and the Georgia law school.

FISHERMAN DROWNS NEAR COLUMBUS

COLUMBUS, Ga., March 1. (AP)—Willis Young, 31, fell into a race mill at the Georgia state power company on the Chattahoochee river and was drowned Monday afternoon. His body was recovered in about an hour. He had gone to the plant to fish.

Survivors include three brothers, Roy Young, of Knoxville, Tenn.; Hermon Young, of Jacksonville, Fla.; and Clyde Young, of Columbus; two sisters, Mrs. Crawford Carpenter and Mrs. J. W. Stephenson, both of Jacksonville, and several aunts and uncles.

Confiscated Doves Put in Cold Storage

THOMASVILLE, Ga., March 1. There are 150 doves on cold storage in a Thomasville ice plant—not for a feast—but to be used as evidence when a group of hunters from Macon and Ashburn go to trial.

A federal game warden brought the birds here following the arrest of a group of men from Macon and Ashburn, on charges of shooting doves out of season over a field near Ashburn. The warden said the birds had been shot before game wardens reached the field.

CIVIC OPERA COMPANY IS FORMED AT MACON

Productions by Local Casts Planned; W. E. Dunwoody Elected President.

MACON, Ga., March 1. (AP)—For the production of grand operas by Macon casts, the Macon Civic Opera Company was organized Monday night at Wesleyan Conservatory, and plans were announced for presentation of Cavalleria Rusticana as its first opera some time in April.

Miss Eunice Harper, teacher of voice at Wesleyan Conservatory and former member of the New York Opera Company, was elected director of the company. Organization was effected after several meetings of persons interested in the movement.

W. Elliott Dunwoody, architect, was elected president and R. L. McKenney, who headed the old Macon Grand Opera Association, was made chairman of the advisory board of directors.

Elbert Peabody was elected treasurer; Miss Mary Lou Barton, secretary, and Miss Nanette Ruff, accompanist. Members of the advisory board, in addition to Mr. McKenney, are Mrs. Bascom S. Deaver, Mrs. Broadus E. Willingham Jr., Miss Henrietta Collins, Boyce Miller, George D. W. Burt, Dr. Holmes Mason and Robert Williams.

A chorus of about 60 voices has been rehearsing under Miss Harper's direction for several weeks. Principals also are being coached by Miss Harper. The opera will be sung in English, and will be presented either in the Grand theater or the Macon

SELF-INFLICTED WOUND FATAL TO JOHN HOBBS

AUGUSTA, Ga., March 1. (AP)—John Hobbs, 45, died here today from a bullet wound police said he inflicted on himself after shooting Miss Mahel Morris, 34, to death yesterday. Hobbs, reported by police to have been friendly with Miss Morris for several years, was married. His widow is in a hospital for an operation.

Under present plans, the company will undertake longer operas after it perfects its organization. A production of Carmen, with Miss Harper singing the title role, is among the operas which have been mentioned.

Church To Celebrate Its 105th Anniversary

LAGRANGE, Ga., March 1.—The First Baptist church of LaGrange is preparing to observe its 105th anniversary with an elaborate 9-day program in April.

Dr. Scott Patterson, former missionary to Africa, will give one of a series of lectures each morning during the observance, April 3 to 12. At a series of evening services members of the church will appear on the programs.

Work on a complete history of the church from the early days when slaves were permitted membership is being compiled by the pastor, Rev. Willis E. Howard.

WARRANT ACCUSES BRANTLEY DEPUTY

WAYCROSS, Ga., March 1. (AP)—M. Moore has sworn out a warrant in near-by Brantley county charging Deputy Sheriff Griffith Hinton, of that county, with pointing a pistol at him. Moore, alleges the deputy pointed the weapon at his stomach and frightened him. The deputy denies the charge.

The case has been set for hearing at the June term of Brantley county court.

FORMER J. P. FOUND NEAR DEATH AT ROME

ROME, Ga., March 1. (AP)—Clerico Hammond, 71, a former justice of the peace and member of a prominent Floyd county family, was found in bed at his home near here today with his throat slashed.

He was brought to a hospital here where he was reported in critical condition. Mr. Hammond was found by members of the family. A razor or some other sharp instrument was used to slash his throat.

English Open Ancestral Jewel Boxes To Increase Country's Gold Supply

LONDON, March 1.—(P)—Thousands of Englishmen today were tossing goldsmiths' masterpieces of centuries past into the melting pot as sacrifices on the altar of patriotism and profit.

There was no estimate as to the amount of gold that has come out of ancestral jewel boxes, but one authority estimated that Englishmen owned a grand total of 3,000,000,000 pounds of gold in all forms, including gold sovereigns.

Sellers of the yellow metal have been led to convert it to ordinary currency because of the opportunity to increase their country's gold supply, and thus protect the pound sterling abroad and because of the profit involved.

The price of the gold sovereign, that is an English pound at par of $4.88, is 27 shillings. A pound sterling with England off the gold standard is worth about $3.44. There are 20 shillings in a pound, therefore the seller of gold realizes a profit of 7 shillings on enough gold to make a sovereign.

The whole situation, much like that in France six years ago when the franc was stabilized, was created when England went off the gold standard and the price of gold mounted.

Many sellers of ancient pieces, wrought by goldsmiths years ago and in many lands, including India, have turned them over to gold dealers without being aware of their greater artistic value.

Although some have been warned to seek the more remunerative collectors' markets, many priceless works of art have gone to the melting pot in spite of all conscientious dealers could do to stop it.

The whole country appears to have been seized with the selling "fever." The announcement that a slight reduction in the price of the gold sovereign might come and that the price of fine gold had dropped only served to increase the rush.

China Looking to Russia for Aid, Col. Isaac Newell Tells Rotary

BY W. F. CALDWELL,
Associated Press Staff Writer.

Unless the western nations do something to block Japan, China will turn to Russia for help, Colonel Isaac Newell, retired army officer, said in a speech here Tuesday before the Atlanta Rotary Club.

Colonel Newell spent 17 years in China and maintains a home at Peiping. He is now on a visit to his brother, Alfred C. Newell, in Atlanta. He spent many years with the American army in China and is conversant with conditions in all parts of that country.

In his talk here he frankly expressed his sympathy for China in her present struggle with Japan. He said that while he admired the Japanese, they are "an arrogant, insincere race and cannot be trusted."

"I believe the newspapers are giving you correct accounts of what is taking place in Shanghai and Manchuria," he told the Rotarians. "Japan may push the Chinese back from Shanghai and take Peiping, Hangchow and other cities, but she can never control China," he continued.

Colonel Newell said that since Japan had made her thrust on Shanghai "China has come together and is a cauldron boiling with bitter hatred of Japanese."

While China may be forced to a temporary peace, Colonel Newell expressed the opinion that eventually "China will throw out the Japanese."

He said China is not what she was five years ago and that the change was understood by the United States and Great Britain, which are helping her. "But Japan will never stand for a strong China," he said.

China trusted the League of Nations, the nine-power treaty and the Kellogg pact to check Japan and in her disappointment at the failure of these instruments she is looking toward Russia to aid her, the colonel said.

The seeds of communism were sown some years ago around Canton, he explained. He predicted that if Russia and China come together they will overrun Japan and become a world menace.

He outlined the factions and various movements which have been and are controlling various parts of China and pictured Chiang Kai-shek as the strong man of the nation.

Colonel Newell said Japan wanted Manchuria for the coal and iron and desired control of the South Manchurian railway for strategic purposes. He cited the 21 demands which, he said, were forced on China at the time of the World War when the western nations were unable to protest and said hatred of Japan in China dates from this event.

TWO INSURGENTS KILLED IN NICARAGUA
WASHINGTON, March 1.—(P)—The death of two Nicaraguan insurgents and the wounding of several others in a clash between 21 members of the Nicaraguan Guardia and numerous insurgents at Nagascolo was reported to the navy today by Lieutenant Colonel C. E. Matthews, marine corps, commanding the Nicaraguan national guard detachment.

Barney Barnes Can Now Eat Anything He Chooses

"I got so I couldn't eat anything without having trouble afterwards," says Mr. Barney Barnes, popular oil rig builder, of 221 1/2 West Grand Avenue, Oklahoma City, Okla. "I would have heartburn, indigestion, and pains after meals."

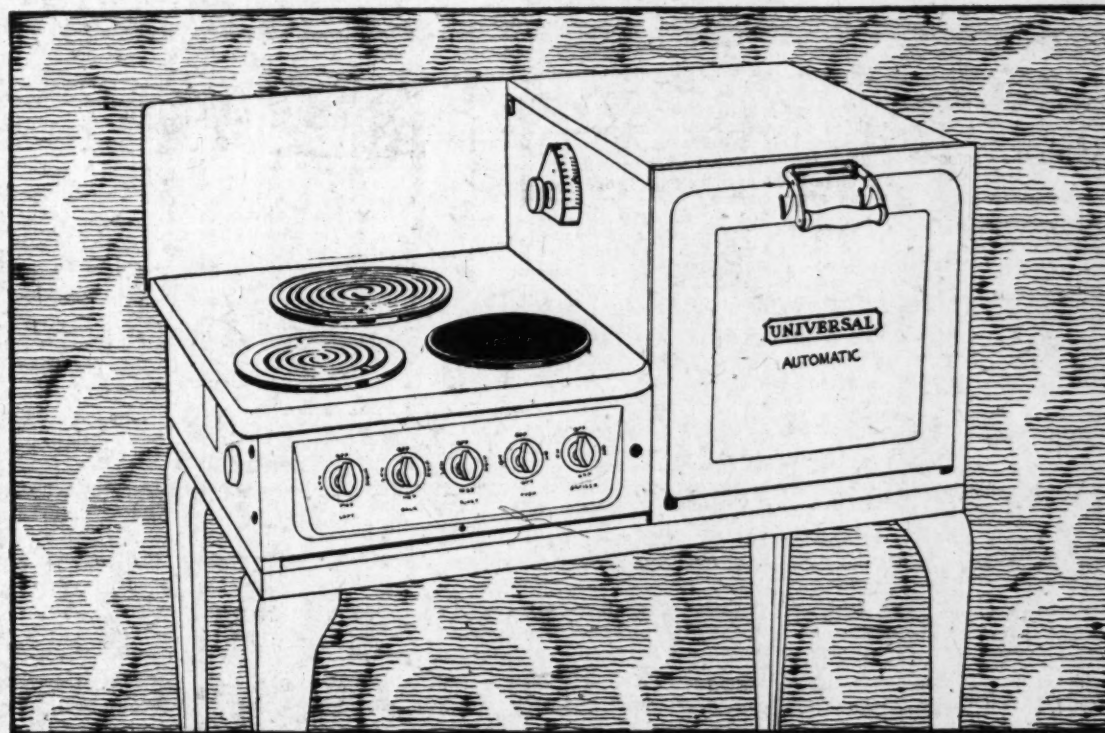

"Nothing seemed to help me. I tried everything I could hear of but my indigestion hung on for years. Then a friend got me to take some Pape's Diapiesin. I had almost immediate relief with the first two tablets. Now that I have been taking them for some time, I find I can eat meats or most anything and have no trouble. I want to tell others about Diapiesin because it sure helped me."

Thousands like Mr. Barnes are finding quick, certain relief for sour stomach, or acidity, by using Pape's Diapiesin. Chew a tablet and that feeling of weight and discomfort after eating just disappears.

FINNISH INCREASE FORCES IN CAPITAL

Rebels Still Hold Town of Mantsala, 35 Miles From Helsinki.

HELSINKI, Finland, March 1.—(AP)—Finland's fascist rebels, the Lapua, still held the town of Mantsala, 35 miles from the capital, tonight and a government trap set at Hameenlinna, 70 miles away, failed to bag any conspirators.

Although the government announced that it believed the movement was well in hand, a regiment of soldiers arrived in the capital from Turku, in southwest Finland, to strengthen the army here. Other military contingents, all of which the government said had remained loyal, remained ready to act if further outbreaks occurred.

Two members of the cabinet, social Minister Kallio and Assistant Home Minister Solja, both of whom are Lapuists, today offered their resignations to President Pehr Evind Svinhufvud. They have heretofore formed the opposition bloc in the cabinet.

There was no word today of the clash between fascist bands and government troops in the Mantsala area, which was reported to have occurred yesterday.

One man who succeeded in getting through to the capital from Mantsala said he saw only a few rebels armed with rifles and that they had little ammunition.

He described the rebels as "light-hearted youths" who believed their surrender would be arranged easily with the government to prevent bloodshed, and who hoped that rebellious events would cause the fall of the present ministry.

The government set a trap at a house at Hameenlinna before dawn today in the hope of catching the leaders of the rebel movement, but when the trap was sprung the prey had departed.

Helsinki was quiet. The aim of the Lapua, an organization with military discipline and bitter enmity toward communists, is to eliminate Marxism and socialism from Finland.

Lame Duck Bill Wins Conferees' Approval

WASHINGTON, March 1.—(AP)—The Norris resolution to abolish the "lame duck" session of congress today reached its final legislative stage with house adoption of the conference report.

The report was returned to the senate for approval. This is expected early tomorrow, completing congressional action and ending a nine-year dispute between the two branches on the proposed constitutional amendment.

Three-fourths of the states will have to ratify it within seven years before it can become effective. It does not go to the president for his signature, but will be placed in the archives of the state department to await ratification. It would be the 20th amendment to the constitution.

Terms of congressmen and the new sessions would begin on January 3, with the terms of the president and vice president beginning on January 20, instead of March 4 as at present. Two indeterminate sessions are provided. The house held out for a limited second session, until the Democrats got into control.

1 KILLED, 4 INJURED WHEN TRAINS CRASH

CLINTON, Tenn., March 1.—(AP)—Tom Allman, brakeman, was killed and four other trainmen were injured when a Southern Railway freight and work train collided head-on today at Peaks station, four miles south of here. Allman was riding in the freight train cab.

H. F. Bishop and J. Allen Bishop, engineer and fireman on the freight train, were taken to a Knoxville hospital. The fireman was scalded and reported to be in a serious condition. A. M. Wood and L. M. Bruce, engineer and fireman of the work train, escaped with minor injuries.

INVENTIVE GENIUS MAKES CALOMEL DELIGHTFUL

Calomel, the Most Valuable of All Drugs, Now Robbed of Its Unpleasant and Dangerous Qualities—Calotabs the New Name.

The medicinal virtues of calomel are in no way connected with its nauseating and dangerous qualities, as is proven by the fact that the new calomel tablet, called Calotabs, is wholly free from objectionable effects yet retains all of the liver-cleansing and system purifying qualities of the old-style calomel. For biliousness, constipation and indigestion, however, calomel is essential, the new deaused calomel tablet is a practically perfect remedy.

To inspire public confidence in their discovery the manufacturers have authorized druggists everywhere to refund the price if the customer is not "perfectly delighted" with Calotabs. One tablet at bedtime, with a glass of water—no taste, no nausea, no griping. You wake up in the morning with a clean liver, feeling fine, and a hearty appetite. Eat what you please—no danger.

Beware of imitations! Genuine Calotabs are sold only in "checker-board" (black and white) packages bearing the copyrighted trade-mark "Calotabs". The large, family size sells for thirty-five cents; yeast-pocket size, ten cents. All dealers are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with Calotabs.—(adv.)

Goethe Foresaw Age Of Machine—Hauptmann

NEW YORK, March 1.—(AP)—Dr. Gerhart Hauptmann, Germany's great dramatist, said in an address today that Goethe foresaw the coming of the machine age more than a century ago and welcomed it as an aid to better living.

The premier German poet showed an appreciation of the part the machine could play in human life by his references to mechanical inventions in his writings. Dr. Hauptmann said, in "Faust," for instance, he was said to have expressed the desire to fly in the belief that would make the world a happier planet.

But in spite of these hopes it is impossible to say that humanity is any better off today than in the time of Goethe, who died a hundred years ago this year, Dr. Hauptmann continued.

ANTI-HOARDING HEADS GATHER HERE TODAY

Forces marshalled in Georgia to combat depression by a concerted effort to bring life money out of its hiding places and put it to work to lay plans for their active campaign at a meeting at the Atlanta Athletic Club at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The luncheon gathering was called together by P. S. Arkwright, Georgia chairman of the Citizens' Reconstruction Organization, nationwide body headed by President Hoover. The organization has, among its other objects, sale of a special issue of United States treasury certificates of small denominations, to run for a short term, in the hope that this type of security will appeal to people who have withdrawn their funds from circulation temporarily because they were not satisfied with the safety of other forms of investment.

Leaders in the movement from the northern half of Georgia are expected at the meeting today. In addition to many Atlantans who have volunteered to take an active part in the campaign from March 7 to 15, many prominent people from other cities will be present. Among these are Dr. W. Anderson, of Gainesville, president of the Cotton Manufacturers' Association of Georgia, member of the state advisory council; Edgar Dunlap, Gainesville, Gainesville division chairman; S. Hardy, Gainesville, president of the Chamber of Commerce in that city; Mrs. R. H. Han-kinson, McDonough, president of the Georgia Congress of Parents and Teachers, is another who has signified her intention of attending the luncheon.

George West, chairman for the Atlanta division, comprising Fulton and surrounding counties, Tuesday announced the appointment of the following local chairmen: Julius McCurdy, Decatur, DeKalb county; John B. Mills, Griffin, Spalding county; J. Ellis Mundy, Jonesboro, Clayton county; State Senator Ed L. Reagan, McDonough, Henry county; W. H. Baldwin, Conyers, Rockdale county; Charles Candler, Covington, Newton county; Margie Allison, Lawrenceville, Gwinnett county; W. F. Byrd, Dallas, Paulding county; M. W. Word, Fairburn, former Campbell county; Alpha Fowler, Douglasville, Douglas county.

SECOND TRIAL BEGINS FOR CARVER TODAY

ARCADIA, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—William Raymond Carver, formerly of Philadelphia, will go on trial here tomorrow for the second time on charges he murdered his wife at a hotel at their home near Sebring, Fla., April 2, 1930.

The case was brought here from Highlands county on a change of venue after Carver's conviction and sentence to life imprisonment were set aside by the supreme court's grant of a new trial.

Carver is charged also with the murder of his small son and a negro servant. The woman and boy were killed with the hatchet and the negro was shot to death. Carver stoutly maintained he shot the negro after he discovered the latter had murdered his family.

U. S. WILL SUSTAIN CONCENTRATE RULING

WASHINGTON, March 1.—(AP)—The justice department announced today it is standing on recent judicial pronouncements outlawing home-served grape concentrates that turn to wine.

An official statement disclosed the prohibition bureau has instructed administrators "that in dealing with the sale or furnishing of grape concentrates and similar commodities intended for fermentation and beverage use, they will be guided by Judge Otis' interpretation of the law."

Merrill E. Otis, United States district judge at Kansas City, last October doctored the concentrates in the "Kish" decision. Shortly afterward Fruit Industries, Incorporated, announced it was discontinuing putting kegs of concentrates into cellars and would sell its products only to established dealers.

DISASTROUS BLAZE SWEEPS JERSEY TOWN

PENNSGROVE, N. J., March 1.—(AP)—Fifty to sixty small homes were burned or badly damaged and a church and six stores were destroyed by a fire which swept a large section of the western end of Pennsgrove borough today.

About 200 persons were rendered homeless and the damage was estimated at nearly a half-million dollars.

Fire companies from 20 communities in South Jersey, with two from Wilmington, Del., across the river and three from Camden, fought the fire. So heavy was the rain on the water supply that it ran dangerously low and preparations were made to pump water from the river. Five hundred firemen fought the flames. More than 500 firemen and others were overcome.

Among the buildings burned was Bethel Methodist Protestant church.

FLORIDA WELCOMES WIFE OF PRESIDENT

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—Jacksonville and Florida today welcomed Mrs. Herbert Hoover.

Arriving aboard the U. S. Sequoia, a department of commerce inland waterways inspection boat, the first lady of the land was given an old-fashioned welcome.

Mayor John T. Alsop Jr. and a committee of prominent citizens met the boat as it docked shortly after 4:30 p. m. After the party came ashore, the mayor introduced Mrs. Hoover to the assembled crowd.

Baby Gorilla's Hug Signal of Recovery

WASHINGTON, March 1.—(AP)—N.G.I.'s hug is proof that the valuable young gorilla is convalescing from his recent illness.

His keeper, who has watched the little fellow's condition constantly for several days, was rewarded with a squeeze when he entered N.G.I.'s quarters last night. N.G.I., one of the few of his kind in captivity, has been suffering with pneumonia, and doctors worked night and day to save his life.

100 JOBS FOUND IN LEGION DRIVE

Atlanta's Total Brought to 413 With Much More Work Pledged.

Atlanta's willingness to help the unemployed man and woman to obtain work was manifested Tuesday in total figures of jobs obtained here by the union action campaign against depression, which is being made by the American Legion, labor, civic, fraternal and industrial organizations. Local headquarters reported 101 new jobs had been obtained during the day, bringing this city's total to 413 with many more jobs pledged.

Georgia, which today will reach the end of its first week's activity in the nationwide drive, ranks second among southern states in the number of jobs made available through the concerted efforts of the legion posts, business leaders and others who daily are joining in the campaign.

Figures made public Tuesday, including those of Atlanta at the end of that day's campaign and up to noon for the rest of the state, showed that throughout Georgia 2,318 jobs have been obtained. This ranks second to Alabama, which for the same period reported 3,031. Birmingham led all cities in the south in individual municipal figures, with the impressive total of 2,005 jobs. This large number, however, was explained by local leaders as being due to the large steel mills putting on additional men in the Birmingham area.

National totals for Tuesday, made public through legion headquarters in New York city, were 10,039, bringing to a grand total for the country 127,544 since the campaign was launched. According to Mrs. R. Murdock Walker, head of the Atlanta Federation of Women's Clubs, which have combined their activities on the relief of unemployed, the tangible figures do not represent the entire achievement of the local drive, for the reason that scores of employers who had previously decided to lay off workmen have been persuaded to stabilize employment. Thus, Mrs. Walker points out, many jobs have been saved which otherwise might have been thrown into the unemployed class.

Announcement was made Tuesday that W. D. Lyons, national commander of the "40 and 8," honorary society of the Legion, is scheduled to visit Atlanta Friday in the interests of the drive. Mr. Lyons, in a communication to Major Trammell Scott, commander of the Atlanta post, termed the campaign the greatest movement the Legion ever has undertaken.

COTTON MEN TO FIGHT OLEOMARGARINE TAX

Say Price of Seed Is Broken by Discrimination Against Oil.

NEW ORLEANS, La., March 1.—(AP)—Directors of the American Cotton Co-operative Association in session here today voted to enter upon "an active campaign" for the removal of the 10 per cent tax on oleomargarine "and other discrimination" against the product.

Resolutions adopted instructed officers of the association to co-operate with domestic producers of animal and vegetable fats which enter into oleomargarine in calling upon congress and the state legislatures "to remove and prevent discriminatory barriers."

The price of cottonseed is largely dependent on the price of cottonseed oil, and it in turn on the uses to which it is put. Highest prices for cottonseed oil are paid when used for edible products, the resolution said in explanation of the A. C. C. A. stand. It added that no attempt should be made to sell oleomargarine as a substitute for butter, "but on its own merits. With the present widespread unemployment and reduced buying power, it is unfair to both producers and consumers to require an excessive price through a tax on a legitimate and wholesome product."

The directors reaffirmed intention of continuing to work with dairymen's organizations in seeking a tariff against foreign oils.

The directors met here today to discuss the new contracts to be made with farmers and affiliated state co-operatives in the handling of next year's cotton crop.

U. B. Blacklock, Raleigh, N. C., president of the association, presided at the executive sessions, which will be continued tomorrow.

Carl Williams, of the federal farm board, who attended the board meeting, said in a statement that the southern farmer, in diversifying from cotton, should seek co-operative methods to make such diversification profitable. He cited milk-marketing associations successfully operating near cities as an example.

New Device To Expose 'Gun-Toting' Persons

CHICAGO, March 1.—(AP)—It may be tough on gun carriers if a new device displayed at the Northwestern University crime detection laboratory finds practical application.

The device, composed of a series of magnetic coils, announces the approach of a person carrying a pistol by ringing a bell. It was presented to the laboratory for experimental purposes by its inventor, William Breitenstein.

Tests of the apparatus are to be made at the state penitentiary at Joliet, Ill., to see if it will show whether any metal objects, such as saws or files are wrapped in packages sent in to prisoners.

HELLINGER SANCTIONS WIFE'S DIVORCE SUIT

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 1.—(UP)—Mark Hellinger, New York columnist, will not contest the divorce suit filed in Nogales, Mexico, by his wife, Gladys Glad, Ziegfeld follies player, he said here today.

Hellinger said the divorce was "just one of those things which happen—that's all."

"There isn't the slightest bit of ill feeling between Mrs. Hellinger and me," he said. "It isn't exactly a case of not being able to get along either."

Miss Glad, in Cincinnati with the Follies, said she made no charges in her petition.

MRS. B. J. KING SR. IS TAKEN BY DEATH

Prominent Clubwoman
Formerly Owned Mi-
mosa Hall, Famous Roswell Showplace.

Mrs. Barrington J. King Sr., prominent clubwoman, died Tuesday night at 9:45 o'clock at her residence at 850 St. Charles avenue. She had been ill for some time, and was 76 years old.

Funeral services will be held Thursday at the Spring Hill chapel of H. M. Patterson & Son, with Dr. C. R. Williams officiating. Interment will be in the family lot in West View cemetery.

Born in Abbeville, S. C., Mrs. King was a member of a prominent South Carolina family. She had resided here for nearly 35 years and was widely known. Her husband, the late Barrington J. King, was a partner in the firm of Brown & King Supply Company until his death in 1899.

Mrs. King formerly resided in Roswell, where her home Mimosa Hall, of the old southern colonial type architecture, was a famous showplace. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution and was especially active in the United Daughters of the Confederacy. One of the first chapters of the U. D. C. was formed in her grandmother's home in Abbeville.

A graduate of the Due West (S. C.) Female College, Mrs. King had also attended Lucy Cobb Institute in Athens. She was a member of the Presbyterian church.

Surviving Mrs. King are two daughters, Mrs. H. K. Gilliland and Mrs. J. K. Arnold, of Atlanta; four sons, Norman P. King, of Atlanta; Barrington J. King, of LaGrange; Henry T. King, of Dallas, Texas; and Walter B. King, of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and several grandchildren, including Miss Katherine Gilliland, of Atlanta.

in miles. Throughout Shanghai's residential district houses and apartment blocks rattled as the dogs of war again hurried into action. The shelling, which had lulled in the early morning after booming far into the night, opened up again before dawn. The flashes of the big guns were visible over most of the city.

Despite Chinese denials, strong and apparently authenticated reports said the Japanese succeeded in landing a force of approximately 10,000 men in the vicinity of Liubo yesterday.

Although communications with Liubo, 20 miles north of Shanghai, were shattered, it seemed today the Japanese had landed on the south bank of the Yangtze river and were fighting their way southward. Whether they were troops of the eleventh or fourteenth Japanese divisions, both expected to come here, was not specified.

They were thought to have come ashore in armored barges while a destroyer squadron in the Yangtze shelled the shore line to cover their landing.

The Japanese headquarters announced that during yesterday's action the whole line between Kiangwan and Maohungchen, a distance of about two miles, had been advanced from three-fourths of a mile to a mile. These new positions were consolidated during the night and long before dawnbreak the Japanese storm troops went over the top to continue the forward movement.

MRS. NICOLL, SENATOR RAP PROHIBITION LAW

CHARLESTON, S. C., March 1.—(AP)—Mrs. Courtlandt Nicoll, of New York, told an audience at an anti-prohibition rally here tonight proponents of federal prohibition have come to "a day of reckoning."

Mrs. Nicoll was one of two prominent speakers at the rally, sponsored by the executive committee of the Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform, which is meeting in this city. The other speaker was Senator Millard E. Tydings, of Maryland.

"In the history of every movement," Mrs. Nicoll said, "there comes a day of reckoning, a day when advocates and proponents of the movement must render an accounting, and laying aside rhetoric and theorizing, face the facts as they are, not as they would have them. It is in that situation that proponents of federal prohibition find themselves today."

Senator Tydings urged the "golden rule" be applied to the liquor problem. He said the question could be settled on a state's right basis but the federal government failed when it "attempted at one swoop to remove the liquor problem."

"Why not apply the golden rule to this question?" he asked. "All that the other states ask of South Carolina is the right to settle their own problems at home; if the people of South Carolina want prohibition I would be the last to stand in their way."

"I repeat that it is not a question of liquor or no liquor. It is a question of whether we want the state or the national government to solve the problem. The national government has had the opportunity for 11 years, and it has made an utter failure."

Mrs. Nicoll said the five unfilled promises of prohibition were:

"Closing of 150,000 saloons; drunkenness reduced by half; crime reduced by half; cleanup politics by removing liquor corruption; and fostering teamwork between the states and the nation to fight evil."

LINDBERGH BABY IS KIDNAPED

someone peered into the nursery. The crib was empty.

Police at Hillside reported the finding of a blue (Nash) sedan early today at route 29 and Field place. The rear seat yielded an odor resembling chloroform.

While the spot where it was found is not on the direct route from Princeton, police expressed the belief the car might have been the one used by the kidnapers of the Lindbergh baby.

The first newspaperman to reach the home was an Associated Press reporter.

Colonel Lindbergh, bare-headed as usual, was pacing the grounds, while troopers and detectives went over the place with flashlights, seeking clues.

Mrs. Lindbergh, who telephoned the news to her mother, Mrs. Dwight W. Morrow, at the Morrow home in Englewood, N. J., was inside the house but was shielded carefully from newspapermen.

A close friend of Mrs. Lindbergh said she was expecting another child within three months.

The house glowed with lights. A buller appeared at the door, obviously distraught, but he, like his employer, refused to make a statement.

The police, dashing pell-mell to the place, were delayed by the mud-soaked route. It was an hour before they reached the house, which is perched amidst the Sourland hills, on the second highest eminence in New Jersey.

At the Morrow home in Englewood, it was said Mrs. Morrow had not decided whether to leave at once to be with her daughter.

The first police news of the crime came in the following blunt teletype message:

"Colonel Lindbergh's baby kidnaped from Lindbergh home at Hopewell, between 7:30 and 10 p. m. Boy, 19 months (his age actually is 20 months) dressed in sleeping suit. Search all cars."

For the next hour it was virtually impossible to get telephonic communication with the Lindberghs. One call brought the response: "No one has time to talk"—and finally the operator said she had orders to refer all inquiries to the police, who had no announcement to make.

As news of the kidnapping filtered through the friendly countryside—all Lindbergh's neighbors are farmers—lights began to glow in the hills and many came to the place to volunteer aid in the search.

The Lindbergh baby, probably the most famous infant in the world, is as a golden-haired replica of his famous father. He is chubby, with blue eyes and curly hair.

He was of about normal stature for his age, had begun to toddle about and was learning to talk. Members of the family stressed the resemblance.

His nursery, filled with every possible device for childish joy, is in the right-hand corner of the second floor of the big house.

The window near his crib, which was open when his nurse went into the room, is 30 feet from the ground.

On the window sill, police said, a note was found, and, though they would not divulge its contents, it was indicated that it contained a demand for ransom.

A three-piece ladder was found a hundred feet from the house, as if it had been dropped in a hurry, and police believe this was used to reach the window.

The window of the nursery looks out on the private road which links the estate with the main highway.

Near the house is a private landing field, and behind it are dense woods, though open country is at the front and on both sides.

These footprints were followed to the rutted lane, where a car, apparently, had waited.

The first news the Lindberghs had of the crime was when the frightened nurse ran downstairs, screaming that the baby had been kidnaped.

Besides the Lindberghs, the only persons in the house at the time were Betty Gow, the baby's nurse, the butler, Ollie Wheatley, and his wife.

It had been the Lindberghs' custom to spend week-ends only at the country place, but on Saturday they decided to remain all this week.

As news of the kidnapping spread over the states, automobiles from every section converged on the scene. Two hundred police were stationed in the vicinity in an effort to keep traffic from clogging, but, even so, many machines came to a standstill in the narrow road.

State Trooper Michael Hullfish, of Hopewell, was foreman of the construction gang when the home was built and gave police the names of 50 men employed on the job, all of whom will be questioned.

Throughout its brief life, the Lindbergh baby has been one of the most carefully guarded infants in the country. Last summer, while his parents flew to the orient, he was taken to the Morrow summer home in Maine.

The baby was born on June 22, 1930, his mother's birthday anniversary, and the event was publicized internationally.

Son of Lindbergh and grandson of the late Dwight W. Morrow, former United States senator and international banker, celebrities in all parts of the world hastened to send their congratulations to the famous couple.

Flowers were delivered to the Englewood home in trucks, and cablegrams, telegrams and letters arrived by the hundred.

To come, too, including four pairs of baby shoes, one pair wrought by hundreds of workmen laboring overtime "in gold beads on the softest white kid imaginable." Another pair, in pale blue kid, bore the wings of the "Lone Eagle" in silver beads.

LINDY'S MOTHER LEAVES HOME IN MICHIGAN

DETROIT, March 1.—(AP)—Mrs. Evangeline L. Lindbergh, mother of Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh, received word of her grandson's kidnaping tonight and left at once for an unannounced destination.

How to Relieve Headaches In Three Minutes

When you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, you can get soothing relief in three minutes with "B. C."

A reliable, pleasant-to-take remedy, "B. C." is prepared by a registered pharmacist, compounded on a different principle from most relief-giving agencies in that it contains several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to accomplish in a few minutes what we believe no one drug formula can do in so short a time.

It should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuritis, for reducing fever and quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit-forming drugs. Get "B. C." in 10c and 25c packages, wherever drugs are sold.—(adv.)

TAMPA COUNCILMAN IS NOT INDICTED

TAMPA, Fla., March 1.—(AP)—Nicholas Nucio, city councilman, was not one of the seven men indicted by a federal grand jury last week on a charge of misusing the mails, and arrested here yesterday, as erroneously reported by the Associated Press.

The Associated Press is glad to make this correction.

Three Months Margin

It is unwise for any family to have in bank less than the equivalent of three months income—as a reserve, as a buffer against emergencies.

Sometimes it may seem difficult to save that much money—but if the saving is done systematically, with a definite percentage of income going into the bank every payday, you will not miss it—and you will gain protection against embarrassment.

Start a savings account here this payday. Make it a definite part of your budget,—and stick to the program at least until you have set up that three-month margin against the unknown future.

Savings Department deposits made on or before March 5 draw interest from March 1.

RED SOX STAR IS NEAR DEATH FROM WOUNDS

Ed Morris Stabbed in Fight at Brewton Fish Fry.

BREWTON, Ala., March 1.—(AP)—Big Ed Morris, veteran Boston Red Sox pitcher, was in a critical condition in a Century, Ala., hospital tonight with stab wounds received last night in a fight that broke up a fare-well fish fry given in his honor.

Morris was stabbed twice in the chest, the knife blade piercing to within a fraction of an inch of his heart. Attending physicians gave him a fighting chance to recover.

Friends here who organized the fish fry on the eve of his planned departure for the Red Sox training camp at Savannah, Ga., said the stabbing climaxed an argument which developed between Morris and Joe White, one of the party.

Morris, a strapping fellow towering six feet two, was reported to have slapped White down and in so doing himself tripped and fell. While the two were lying on the ground White was said to have whipped out his knife, plunging it into Morris' chest.

STARTED IN 1920. A native of Foshue, Ala., Morris broke into professional baseball with Bradenton of the Florida State League in 1920. He is a right-hander, tips the scales at 185 pounds, and is 33 years old.

White was being held without charges pending outcome of Morris' wounds.

Rex Enright Is Proud Of His Georgia Team

Bulldog Coach Praises Gallant Tarheel Quintet in Own Story; Strickland Aided Winners.

By Rex Enright, Coach Georgia Basketball Team, Winner Southern Conference Championship. It goes without saying that I am proud of the Georgia basketball team which won the Southern conference championship Tuesday night in the annual tournament at the Atlanta auditorium.

It has been a team which played good basketball all year and at times played the sort of game that no one can beat. It was their good fortune and mine for them to be on their game in the tournament which just concluded. I am proud for them and for the alumni and students who supported us so wholeheartedly during the season and the tournament.

The victory was tinged with a bit of regret that it had to be such a gallant team as North Carolina to go down in defeat. George Shepherd's team is one of the finest I have ever seen and they played like the fighters and sportsmen they are. It required a real team at its peak to beat North Carolina.

In Alexander I believe North Carolina had one of the best guards in the tournament. Stopping him was one of our big jobs. Weathers, a forward, was also a great player. He kept us fellows on the bench in a continual state of anxiety. Hines was a great competitive player. He is worth pointing out as an example to other athletes. He is a champion in tennis and yet rallies to his school's support by turning out for basketball.

As for my own team I am quite naturally proud of them all. We were greatly worried by the injury which Strickland, our center, suffered in the game Monday night and we are all grateful for the work done by Mike Chambers, Georgia Tech trainer, who helped get him in condition to play in the game.

With the score tied, 22 to 22, we were able to send Strickland in and get the tip in the last two minutes of play during which Young and Moran came through with baskets to win the game.

Tommy Moran came through in great style for us as did Young. Smith and all the others who played. When a team wins a title it means that they all played ball and it is hardly fair to single out one over the others. A winning team is simply clicking.

Naturally I am gratified at winning in my first year at Georgia. And yet I would not let this opportunity pass without saying that I inherited a team which was practically ready-made from the work of H. J. Stegman who handled the team in 1931.

All I can say is that I am proud of the Georgia victory for the team and for the students and alumni. They are great boys with a great spirit.

WEBER'S SHOWS ATTRACT 25,000 DURING WINTER

Mat Game Proves Most Popular Indoor Sport Here.

While basketball has drawn some bumper crowds during the conference tournament and Georgia Tech's advance season was up to average, wrestling has far outdistanced Atlanta's winter sports in attracting the paying public through the turnstiles.

An estimate on the attendance at the eight wrestling shows booked here since January 1, reveals that more than 25,000 fans have seen Henry Weber's heavyweights perform at the auditorium.

Jim London, the champion, has wrestled here twice and drew more than 10,000 persons for the two appearances. The other six cards have averaged crowds of 2,500.

Bill Tilden and his troupe put on a tennis exhibition at the auditorium that drew only 1,500 and two boxing shows have drawn under 1,000.

Only bowling stands as a competitor with wrestling in the matter of pulling sportsmen indoors. Atlanta's alleys have been crowded for most of the winter.

But of the other professional and amateur indoor sports, a comparison shows that the trend of Atlanta's sporting public is toward the arena where the mighty men of the mat put on their exhibitions.

Barron Speaks At Church Banquet

Red Barron, manager of the Atlanta Crackers, together with Judge John D. Humphries, of the Fulton superior court, were honor guests and principal speakers Tuesday night at a banquet at the First Baptist church.

The banquet was the opening of an annual drive for new members for the Twentieth Century Bible class of the church. Eugene R. Black, governor of the Federal Reserve bank, is the teacher, and Malcolm Long is the president. Austin Abbott is general chairman of the membership drive and was in charge of the Tuesday banquet.

'Fritz' Crisler Hits Scouting Agreement

PRINCETON, N. J., March 1.—(UP)—Herbert O. "Fritz" Crisler, Princeton University's new football coach, attacked the non-scouting football agreement between Yale and Princeton in his first address following his arrival today from Minnesota.

Crisler declared "such a system creates suspicion and should be abolished for the good of the game."

The new coach spoke at a luncheon given in his honor by the Princeton Athletic Association. It was attended by Princeton officials and by many eastern sportswriters.

HICKMAN MAY PLAY.

Herman Hickman, Tennessee's All-American guard, may play with the Green Bay eleven, professional champions, next season.

OLD TECH STAR TO MAKE DEBUT ON CARD HERE

Former Masked Marvel Starts Climb Back to Top.

Pete Sauer, "The Bronze Man," and ranked by Jim Londer as the toughest man he has ever met, will meet "Blue Sun" Jennings tonight at the auditorium in what promises to be one of the greatest matches ever seen in Atlanta.

Pete Sauer, a Ray Steele, as he is known in the east, uses the body slam quite a lot. And Blue Sun Jennings is one of the most difficult men to pick up in the game. Which will just about nullify the body slams. And make the match more even.

Sauer is a great favorite here. There are no still moments when he is wrestling. He takes more chances than any other grappler in the game. That is why he loses a few but he always pleases the fans. Pete Sauer never hesitates. He barges right in there and bangs away. And usually he comes out on top.

Sauer seems to have been momentarily shunted out of the championship match by Ed (Strangler) Lewis with whom he wrestled a draw. Sauer, however, insists he can beat Lewis and that as soon as he has the veteran shot he will wipe out the veteran and be ready for London's. The best Sauer has ever done with London is a two-hour draw. He has lost other matches. But he still remains a great figure in the game.

The semi-windup brings out Roy (Fuzzy) Lumpkin, the former Georgia Tech football star. He meets Steve Znoski, the Boston heavyweight. It will be Lumpkin's first appearance here as a wrestler.

Znoski deserves a cheer for his insistence on showing. He was on the card originally but had to be taken off because of another date. This was cancelled and Znoski then wired asking to be put back on the card because he did not wish to disappoint the many fans here who cheer his every appearance.

Lumpkin will be making his debut here as a wrestler. He has appeared in the east on several cards, in Philadelphia and other cities. But this will be his first match in the south.

Tickets are on sale at the Piedmont Hotel and at Davidson-Paxon's. Ladies will be admitted to any seat in the auditorium for 75 cents. After 5 o'clock tickets may be had at the auditorium box office.

Burns Is Elected To Lead Cadets

Robert Burns, flashy little guard on the 1932 G. M. A. basketball team, was elected to captain the 1933 quintet Tuesday afternoon. Burns, center, was chosen as alternate captain.

Letters and sweaters were awarded to 10 players and a team manager. They were Chase, Allison, McCann, Page, Boulware, Walker, Elrod, Burns, Williamson and Pendleton. Selekis was given a manager's letter. Sam Burbage, the coach, expressed his appreciation for the excellent spirit and co-operation of every player throughout the season.

GEORGIA TAKES FIRST COURT TITLE

Continued from First Sports Page. ran cut it down a point with a free one, 11-10. Pound, in for Terrell, missed a long one by inches and then Smith sank a sensational, one-handed overhead shot to pull Georgia ahead, 12-11. Hines with a side shot, made it 13-12. Two goals by Young and one by Smith, while Hines was making a lone free throw and Alexander a field goal, kept Georgia ahead at the half, 18-16.

GEORGIA IS AHEAD. A free throw by Smith and a field goal by Young made it Georgia 21, Carolina 16. Hines sank two field goals in rapid order and Alexander sent one swishing through, while Joe Chandler was adding a foul shot for Georgia and the score was tied at 22-all.

The Bulldogs did not lose their heads, but jockeyed the ball calmly until Young and Moran could come through with their Merriwell shots that won the game.

Thus ended one of the most thrilling tournaments of history and one that proved a financial success despite cut prices, largely through the color that the Bulldogs injected into the competition.

'RUBE' QUALIFIES AS PUBLIC SPEAKER

Continued from First Sports Page. public occasions, but Rube had the nerve to go. And not a single plate was thrown, he says. The Atlanta ball players, if you would know, are delighted to have Rube Marquard around. They recognized his ability as a coach last spring when he imparted some of his tricks to the young pitchers.

"I said that young Johnny Carrithers, who works in a baseball bat factory over at Athens, let out a yell that could be heard all over the place when he read the news."

Marquard will make Barron a great lieutenant. "Red" played for him at Providence in 1926 and liked him. They will get along like two peas in a pod will Red and Rube, and Barron is not in the slightest jealous of having his old manager around.

Rube believes in taking an active hand in practice. As recently as 1930 he did some relief pitching for Jacksonville, which he managed and brought out of the cellar. Yesterday he was serving them over in batting practice with the old fork hand and enjoying it.

The writer also has discovered the secret of Rube's eternal youth. Yesterday we invited him to refresh himself with a soft drink. "No, thanks," he replied.

"Then what about a cigar?" (the generous Jones). "I never use them," was the Rube's answer. "Which may explain that bloom of youth in the Marquard complexion."

No Deals Here, Say Wisconsin Officials

Harry Mehre, Georgia football coach who Tuesday was mentioned as one of the probable selections as coach at Wisconsin, refused to make any comment. HAWAII ATTACKER GETS LIFE IN PEN

HONOLULU, March 1.—(AP)—John Fernandez, 21-year-old former convict, was sentenced to life imprisonment late today when he pleaded guilty to an assault earlier in the day on a Japanese servant woman.

The assault came three days after an attack on the wife of a navy enlisted man and nine days before the scheduled trial of four Americans charged with the slaying of Joseph Kahahawai, one of the four accused of attacking the wife of Naval Lieutenant Thomas H. Massie, September 12.

All police organizations on the island and many citizens joined in a frenzied search for the attacker. Fernandez was arrested soon after the search started. The woman had given police a detailed description of her assailant.

The Japanese girl said the youth lay in hiding in the underbrush. After the assault he fled toward the beach in an automobile.

Castle, employer of the woman, is a cousin of William R. Castle, under-secretary of state at Washington. His home is on the opposite side of Oahu island from Honolulu.

WASHINGTON PLAYLET OFFERED AT DECATUR

A playlet commemorating the 200th birthday anniversary of George Washington was presented Tuesday night by the pupils of the Ponce de Leon school in Decatur. Famous historical characters were impersonated in costume by the pupils. Ten-year-old Franklin Williams and Betty Boyle took the parts of George and Martha Washington.

The play was staged and directed by Miss Emmie Davis, principal of the school, and a large crowd was in attendance. A feature of the affair was the sword presented to Washington, which was used by Thomas P. Hudson in the War Between the States. The weapon now belongs to his son, W. Guy Hudson, of Decatur.

How Millions LOSE FAT

You know, as all know, that in late years excess fat has been disappearing fast. Look about you. Note how slender figures, youth and vigor have displaced abnormal fat.

The reason lies largely in a discovery made by modern science. A great cause of excess fat has been found in a weakened gland. Food which should create fuel and energy goes to piled-up fat.

Now doctors, the world over, feed that lacking factor. Normal conditions return. Fat melts away and vim comes back. And this without starvation.

Marmola prescription tablets embody this modern method. People have used them for 24 years—millions of boxes of them. The changed conditions of today are largely due to Marmola.

Quit wrong methods of reduction, hard or futile. Do what modern doctors do, and what countless people have done with Marmola. Take these tablets—four a day—until weight comes down to normal and vim returns.

All druggists supply Marmola—$1 a box. A book in each box gives the formula and explains the amazing results. Get slender now, more youthful, more active. Don't wait longer. Marmola is at your call.

Harris, Allan Liebler and Miss Doris Coleman, Dan Holsenbeck and Miss Ellen Fleming, Waddy McGinty and Miss Helen Roberts, Joe Horacek and Miss Florie Adkins, Tom Saunders and Miss Nonnie Maughan, Charlie Bird and Miss Mary Frances Gay, Frank Baker and Miss Octavia Riley, Black Dunn and Miss Elizabeth Lively, Molly Davis and Miss Dot Brumby, John Mullin and Miss Dot Ewing, Charlie Mullins and Miss Sue Meminger, Clarke Baker, Blanton Smith, Carlisle Smith, Cherry Emerson, Pledges: Johnnie Echols and Gilbert Ogg.

The chaperons will include Mr. and Mrs. Cherry Emerson, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. White, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Baker, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Echols, Mr. and Mrs. Casper Whitner, Mr. and Mrs. Guyton Parks, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ross C. Treseder, Mr. and Mrs. Philip H. Alston, "Granny" Pearson, Mrs. J. L. Riley, Mrs. B. H. Brandt, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lantz, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blackwell and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Meminger. A number of awards have been sent to the high school and college set.

Music Club Presents Atlanta Artists in Morning Musicales

Atlanta Music Club, Mrs. Walter H. Bedard, president, will present the sixth of its morning musicales of this season this morning at 10:45 o'clock in the auditorium of the Atlanta Woman's Club. This program will be one of the highlights of the season's local concerts, for it brings a trio well known to Atlanta music lovers in an ensemble program.

Caroline Dowman, pianist, Mrs. Elior Whittemore King, violinist, and Enrico Leide, violoncello. Mrs. Dowman is chairman of the program and Mrs. Thad Morrison is general chairman of the morning musicales.

Admission for non-members is 50 cents. For several seasons this trio of artists have appeared before the Atlanta Music Club in ensemble programs, each time with marked success. Mrs. Dowman is well known throughout the south for her unusual pianistic gifts and has given many concerts both in Atlanta and neighboring cities. Mrs. King, before coming to Atlanta to reside, was a concert violinist, playing in many of the leading eastern music centers, and has studied extensively both here and abroad. Mr. Leide is not only a solo cellist of the first rank, but he is noted for being a successful orchestral conductor. The program includes the "Trio in C Major, Opus 5," Arthur Foote, and "Trio in G Minor, Opus 8," by Chopin.

Distinguished guests at the musicale will be Mr. and Mrs. Crosby Adams, formerly of Chicago, now of Montreal, N. C., noted American musicians and composers, and Mrs. J. J. Cravat, Tifton, state president of the Georgia Federation of Music Clubs.

Western Union Officials Honor Newcomers at Tea

An informal reception and tea was tendered Tuesday to members of the district headquarters offices of the Western Union Telegraph Company at Jacksonville, Fla., and Nashville, Tenn., who were transferred to Atlanta on March 1. H. C. Worthen, general manager, with Mrs. Worthen, the members of his staff and office force were the hosts and the affair was held in the offices of the general manager in the Western Union building. A cordial welcome was extended to the newcomers by Mr. Worthen. J. B. Cheatham, district superintendent, expressed thanks and appreciation for the honored guests.

Mrs. Roy Collier, Mrs. Minor Curry, Mrs. Derry Stockbridge, Mrs. Roy Calhoun, Miss Sankie Glenn and Miss Ellen Kener poured tea. Mrs. Harry Hempstead, Miss Jane Lovette and Miss Helen Freeman served sandwiches and cakes. Assisting in entertaining were Mrs. A. G. Langel, Mrs. A. V. Helminger, Mrs. Lillie M. Wilkes, Miss Mary Jenkins, Mrs. B. J. Selts, Mrs. William H. Mills, Miss Ruby England, Mrs. John Spangenberg and Miss Martha Abernethy.

The guests from Jacksonville who were present were Mrs. W. H. Clark, Mrs. Marguerite E. Cross, Miss Nina Hamilton, Miss Winifred McEmery, Mrs. Enaline Walrath, J. B. Cheatham, B. G. Dopen, W. Schmidt Jr., Edward T. Spell, Howard T. Young and James Moore. Those from Nashville included Mrs. Gladys W. Scruggs, Rex Stone and Vernon Stanfill.

Miss Louise Vaughan, of the personnel department of Atlanta was also a special guest of the occasion.

J. P. Allen Installs Ogilvie Beauty Salon.

Miss Jessica Ogilvie, one of the famed seven sisters who originated the Ogilvie scalp treatment, is here to install a beauty salon in J. P. Allen & Co. She created the business 25 years ago in San Francisco, Cal., and it has grown to such proportions that the Ogilvie sisters manage a business in New York, Washington, D. C., Paris, Barritz, and many places in America and Canada.

Following an illness caused by overstrain, which brought on an attack of anemia, Miss Ogilvie's hair lost its healthy condition. She began to study and experiment for herself, until she concocted preparations which were successful in scalp treatment. It was through scientific research that she laid the fundamental base for her success in the business which is one of the largest of its kind.

She will explain how to overcome oily and falling hair with the Ogilvie method, and will encourage men and women to become interested in the battle being waged against baldness. Miss Ogilvie studied the case of her clients and applies a special treatment to every individual case.

FRIENDLY COUNSEL BY CAROLINE CHATFIELD

Problems of general interest submitted by readers will be discussed in this column. Correspondence invited. Your name held in confidence. Write Miss Chatfield, care The Atlanta Constitution.

DEAR MISS CHATFIELD:

I am the most miserable woman on earth although I have two darling children, boys seven and eleven years old. My parents forced me into a loveless marriage with a man twelve years older than I. My husband is a man who takes no interest in his home. He leaves me to attend to all the business in connection with it, while he sits around and reads or goes out to places of amusement. The logical thing has happened. I have fallen in love with another and he wants me to divorce my husband and marry him. I can't go on like this much longer because I love this man more than anything on earth, next to my two children. M.A.E.

ANSWER:

Yes, the logical thing has happened. The cheater has got cheated. He always does. Yes, the logical thing has happened. A man that marries a woman and expects her to make a home for him and their children, takes no interest in that home because the wife has failed to make it anything but a place in which to sleep and to eat and to indulge in regret. How can any man be expected to find entertainment or any spur to ambition in the house where his wife is carrying on a clandestine affair with another man, and making plans to desert her lawful husband in order to marry him? Yes, the logical thing has happened. You are miserable and will be more so under any scheme you can concoct. For you have abandoned the one thing that brings happiness in favor of the thing that brings misery. You have turned your back on duty to play with pleasure. It will sting you into repentance.

One of the most inexorable laws of life reads: "You can't find happiness or peace, or contentment, by laying hands on the thing you have no right to touch." I want to tell the prying pains of an outraged conscience. Surely, if the hunger is a strike against the poor quality of the proffered food, I wonder if the act of thievery doesn't reduce the satisfaction of the acquisition. There is no use to argue with a woman when she is in love. There is no use to point out to her the moral obligation of her plan to desert her husband in favor of the man she loves. Those good offices come to naught. They die a-borning. Nothing will stop her unless she can be convinced that the transgression carries its own punishment, not an arbitrary retribution either, but the sort of punishment that nature meets out to all who disobey her laws.

And so, dear woman, in your wild, and thoughtless scramble for happiness, don't lose sight of the fact that blessing or bane is tied up in the bundle. When you pick up the bundle, you pick up the blessing or the bane. On every bundle will find the line of the contents clearly labeled. You may read them before you make your choice. And remember, making the final decision that your children share with you the blessing or the bane.

CAROLINE CHATFIELD.

Culbertson on Contract

His Curiosity Satisfied

BY ELY CULBERTSON.

World's Champion Player and Greatest Card Analyst

From Toronto comes the sad tale, of Mr. W. M. Anderson, one of the outstanding younger players of that city, satisfied his curiosity in regard to the manner that an unusual deal he had played in Rubber Bridge would work out if placed in the Duplicate boards at the regular session of his Duplicate club. The story is a heartbreaking one, but is too good to keep. This is the hand:

♠ A Q 10
♥ A Q 3
♦ A J 10 9 5 4 3
♣ A 7 6 4 3

West dealt and, as can easily be seen, in spite of his perfectly sound bid of one spade, South can make a Small Slam in spades with no trouble at all. As a matter of fact, that is what Mr. Anderson did in the rubber game.

Afflicted with not only a love for the mathematics of Contract, but with a desire to probe into what others would do when faced with an unusual combination of cards, he asked the secretary to have the deal played at Duplicate. The results were startling. They varied all the way from West playing the hand at one spade doubled with a penalty of 1700 points, to South playing it at four spades doubled, and in one or two cases redoubled with a score of 1340 or 2080, as the case might be. This was the record until the hand came to Mr. Anderson, sitting South, playing with his favorite partner, his wife, Mrs. Anderson, who was entirely unaware of the frame-up, but she is fully conversant with modern Contract bidding, so she promptly bid two spades over West's bid of one spade, feeling that her hand was too strong for a Takeout Double and that it offered very fair chances for possibly even Slam. Her husband responded to her immediate Overall with a bid of six spades which West cheerfully doubled. At this point Mrs. Anderson, as she afterwards admitted, assumed that something had interfered with the exchange of information between the favorite partners and feeling unequal to playing a Small Slam in a suit of which she was void, rescued herself with seven clubs, a bid which she was unfortunately unable to make. The result was that Mr. and Mrs. Anderson were debited with the only minus score North and South.

The moral is don't have secrets from your wife.

TODAY'S POINTER.

Freck hands are filled with dynamite and in bidding them a player should always visualize the fact that partners void of a suit are frequently unable to visualize tremendous length and strength, particularly if such suit has been bid by your adversaries.

It's a Revoke Just the Same. Question: If there is a revoke and 2 tricks have been quitted, the revoking player discovers the card she has not played, does she have the right to

COMMODITY PRICES MAINTAIN LOW LEVEL

WASHINGTON, March 1.—(AP)—Chickens were the only farm commodity that sold for more last month than before the war.

On February 15, the department of agriculture said today, the general level of farm prices was 40 per cent lower than the 1910-to-1914 average. Chickens on February 15 had an average of 12.6 cents a pound, live weight, against 11.4 cents in the pre-war period.

In addition the price of farm products, save cotton and cottonseed and a few miscellaneous articles, were still going down in February. On the 15th, they were 6 points below January 15.

As compared to pre-war prices, however, cotton and cottonseed slumped further than any other commodity. The farm price on February 15 was 47 per cent of pre-war.

Dairy products, 79 per cent of pre-war, compared the least. Grain is 51 per cent; fruits and vegetables 68 per cent; meat animals 65 per cent, and unclassified products 47 per cent.

MRS. LAURA C. GRIFFIS DIES IN DAYTONA BEACH

Mrs. Laura Chastain Griffis, formerly of Atlanta, died unexpectedly Tuesday at her home in Daytona Beach, Fla. The body will be brought here for funeral services at the Peachtree chapel of Brandon, Bond & Condon, and interment will be in West View cemetery. Mrs. Griffis had resided in Daytona Beach with her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Terry, for several years. Other arrangements will be announced later.

say "I revoked?" In other words, is she supposed to beat me to discovering it?

Answer: Under the conditions you mentioned, the revoking side would be subject to the revoke penalty. The fact that she called attention to it in no way does away with the penalty imposed by the law for the offense. This is true despite a quite general and common impression to the contrary.

The hostesses will be Mrs. Thomas C. Whitner, chairman, Mesdames John D. Cramer, J. S. Dill, John William Smith, Ruth Dabney Smith and Miss Blanche Heywood.

A reception will be given by Atlanta chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at Craigie House, at 1204 Piedmont avenue, Friday afternoon, March 4, at 4 o'clock. This occasion will honor Mrs. Joy. Invitations have been extended to the members of Colonial Societies, the Joseph Habersham chapter, D. A. R., and the Sons of the American Revolution. Receiving with the regent, Mrs. Thomas C. Neill, will be the presidents of these organizations.

At the door will be Mesdames Frank Mason, J. P. Womble, Arthur Allen, Willis Timmons and George Breitenbucher, while Mrs. Dennis R. Petet, Mrs. Fred Mason, Mrs. Harry Malone and Miss Hazel Kirk will serve punch.

Mrs. Thomas D. Mell is regent of the chapter. Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. James D. Cramer, first vice regent, and Mrs. Harry Ellis, and Misses Fannie Smith and Ruth Dabney Smith, and little Dorothy High Pettit, mascot of Georgia chapter, Daughters of Founders and Patriots.

Penny Club Campaign Far Over Top As Five-Month Drive Closes Here

The Penny Club, organization with a twofold object accomplished, closed its doors Tuesday night with coins still pouring in to swell the 18,000,000 pennies collected during the five-month existence of the club. Mrs. T. K. Glenn, organizer and chairman of the club, confidently expected the total to reach 20,000,000 copper coins when all collection boxes are finally gathered in.

Tired but happy Mrs. Glenn and Mrs. James L. Dickey, co-worker and, according to the chairman, the "wheel-horse" of the club, departed from headquarters at 42 Edgewood avenue assured that 325 employed on the "made work" plan will continue to work and receive weekly wages for five more weeks.

Organized last September, the organization began to function November 1 and attracted nationwide attention. More than 60 other large cities in the United States and Canada copied Mrs. Glenn's plan of operation. No donations were accepted, no benefit Practical Demonstrations and Important Discussions will be given on Rumford. Miss Jessie M. DeBoth and her lecturers are enthusiastic users of Rumford, the pure all-phosphate Baking Powder.

THERE'S nothing new about the fact of Rumford's two-to-one leavening action. The real truth is that Rumford always leavened in the perfect two-to-one proportion. This scientific aspect of Rumford's leavening power is a matter of routine acceptance and has been from the very beginning.

Now-a-days, however, intelligent women are being bombarded with the "why" of this—the "wherefore" of that.

And we realize that here is a fact of unusual interest—a truth of real importance to busy housewives. So we have analyzed this basic truth and women all over the country have been quick to grasp its real significance in relation to their own busy schedules.

They turn to Rumford and find they can save time by early preparation of doughs for hot breads; they can rest easy about slamming the oven door or jarring movements while the cake is baking; their bakings are perfectly leavened and retain their freshness.

In fact Rumford's two-to-one leavening action produces perfect confidence in baking results. Listen to the interesting story of Rumford in the demonstrated lectures at the Cooking School.

WHITEFOOT WATCHES A GAME OF LIFE.

BY THORNTON W. BURGESS.
Life is a game wherein to take No foolish chance; make no mistake. —Old Mother Nature.

Whitefoot the Wood Mouse; one of the most timid of all the little people in the Green Forest, peeped out from a hole under a stump and held his breath as he watched Chatterer the Red Squirrel playing with Monkey-face the Barn Owl, the most exciting of all games—the game of life or death. To Chatterer the winning of that game meant everything—life itself. To lose meant the end of all things for him. To Monkey-face, winning or losing just meant only a good dinner to take home to his children, or the trouble of hunting a little longer, or somewhere else. He could afford to make mistakes but Chatterer couldn't.

As long as he could keep that tree trunk between them, Chatterer knew that Monkey-face could not catch him. So now began a dodging game that kept Whitefoot so excited he almost forgot to keep out of sight in that hole. The big Owl would swoop at Chatterer and the latter would dodge around so as to keep the tree between them. For a big fellow Monkey-face could turn with amazing quickness, and Chatterer just would hardly have time to get his breath before Monkey-face would swoop again.

How long Monkey-face would have kept up his efforts to catch Chatterer there is no way of knowing. The situation was wholly changed by the sudden appearance of Mrs. Monkey-face. It was fortunate for Chatterer, very fortunate, that he saw her before she got there. Now it would be two to one, and Chatterer knew instantly that it would require all his quickness in both movement and wit to keep out of the clutches of those fierce-eyed hunters. In dodging from one he would have hard work to keep from dodging right into the claws of the other. He knew, too, that if he remained in that bare tree that sooner or later he would be caught.

He didn't have long to rest and was soon frantically dodging for his life, but all the time he was watching for a chance to make one desperate effort to escape. He was ready when that chance offered. Those Owls made the mistake of both swooping at the same time. Chatterer dodged around the tree and as both swept past he darted out along a branch clear to the tip, made a flying jump and landed on the branch of a neighboring hemlock tree and raced along this to the

How Do Dancers Manage?

The professional engagements of a dancer make no allowance for the trying time of a woman's monthly sickness. Yet her menstruating must not interfere with her easy, effortless performance. Such women do not "fight" periodic pain, but avoid it. They use Midol, and do not suffer even a twinge of menstrual pain. Why don't you meet these monthly emergencies with this remarkable modern discovery? Midol takes pain off the calendar. Monthly martyrdom is foolish. For Midol is as harmless as the aspirin tablet you take for your headache! All drug stores; just ask for Midol.

JANUARY BUSINESS IN SOUTH DECLINES

Reserve Bank Report Shows Loss in Retail and Wholesale Trade.

Because the first month of 1931 was a holiday month with abnormal turnover of merchandise stocks, the Federal Reserve survey of business conditions in January failed to show any increase in trade, although daily average consumption of cotton and sales of fertilizer tax tags were on the upturn, according to the monthly report made public Tuesday.

In each of the six states comprising the sixth federal reserve district, comparative figures of January and December recorded substantial declines for the first month of the new year, and graphs of business trends showed unfavorable comparisons with January a year ago.

Retail trade of department stores in Atlanta—with only three such establishments reporting—was 53.8 per cent lower than that for December, and 15.6 per cent less than the net sales of January a year ago, according to the report. The rate of stock turnover in the three Atlanta stores reporting, however, was only .2 per cent lower in January, this year, than they were for the same month a year ago.

The summary of the January survey of the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta included figures showing that the sales by 114 reporting wholesale firms in the six states of the district decreased 12.8 per cent in January as compared with December, and were 28.6 per cent smaller than a year previously.

Debits to individual accounts by banks in 26 clearing house centers of the district fell 2.1 per cent in January from those of December, and were 24.3 per cent smaller than in January, 1931.

Building permits issued during January at 20 cities in the district declined by more than one-half, as compared with December, and were 37 per cent less than for the first month of 1931. In Atlanta only 219 permits were issued in January this year, as compared with 427 for that month in 1931, and the value of permits issued during the first month of the present year for this city was $211,558, as compared with $318,831 for the same month of 1931.

In wholesale trade of Atlanta concerns during January this year, the report shows that sales of groceries were 12.8 per cent lower than those of the holiday month of December; dry goods and hardware, no report; furniture showed an increase in sales of 5.9 per cent over December, but a decline of 28 per cent, as compared with January, 1931.

PENALTY IMPOSED ON TARDY BUYERS OF TAG LICENSES

Motorists who failed Tuesday to buy their 1932 tags, or to make application for it, will have either to put the bus in the garage or pay a 20 per cent penalty beginning today.

A 30-day extension of the time limit fixed by the general assembly expired Tuesday at midnight and the motor vehicle division of the revenue commission prepared to levy the penalty plus the fee of $1 to the sheriff making the collection.

W. C. Peebles, director of the division, ruled that applications postmarked before midnight would be accepted and that personal applications would be approved without a penalty if accompanied by an affidavit that the car had not been used since the expiration of the time limit.

Deputy Sheriff Dan Goodlin has been assigned by Sheriff James I. Lowery to look after collection details and will be stationed in the motor vehicle division at the state capitol this morning. Goodlin is to receive the payment on the tags, which is required of the sheriff by the state's ruling.

FIRST ORTHOPEDIC BED IS ACQUIRED BY GRADY

The first orthopedic bed acquired by Grady hospital has been given to the children's ward by the Entertainers' Club, according to an announcement Tuesday when it was said the club had reached a goal of 100 members. The body was formed last August with a nucleus of 17 charter members.

In announcing the gift of the bed and the growth of the club, officials reviewed much of the work done within the last few months. Several church organizations have sponsored the work and civic clubs have aided in brightening the ward. Officers are Mrs. T. J. Wilson, president; Miss Louise McCoy, vice president; Mrs. Ed Matthews, secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Newlin, treasurer.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO, BOY, 6, BADLY HURT

Robert Mitchell, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Mitchell, 1899 Trotti street, N. E., was seriously injured Tuesday afternoon when he was struck by an automobile driven by Jack Moore, of Stone Mountain. The accident occurred at Trotti and Warren streets, when the child is said to have darted suddenly into the street. Moore picked up the boy and carried him to Grady hospital, afterwards reporting the accident to police. No charges were preferred. At the hospital it was found the child had received serious cuts about the head, internal injuries and possible concussion of the brain.

The commencement sermon on May 29 will be delivered by Dr. Solon B. Cousins, pastor of the Second Baptist church, Richmond, Va.

The alumni address on Monday evening, May 30, will be delivered by Dr. S. V. Sanford, president of the University of Georgia, and a member of the graduating class of 1890 at Mercer University.

The literary address will be delivered in the college chapel Tuesday morning, May 31, by Eugene R. Black, governor of the sixth district federal reserve bank.

TREE COMMEMORATES WASHINGTON'S BIRTH

Members of the Axelia Club Tuesday morning planted a willow tree between the Steiner Clinic and the medical unit of Grady hospital to commemorate the bicentenary of E. L. Tolbert presented the tree and Superintendent J. B. Franklin accepted for the hospital.

Formalities attending the planting of the tree included a reading by Mrs. Eugene McElroy and by Mrs. George Costes. Mrs. E. Stewart, president of the Grady Women's Auxiliary, directed the program. Others present were Mrs. Bruce Moran, Mrs. A. W. Long, Mrs. J. P. Starr, Mrs. H. W. Wilson, Mrs. John H. Woods, Mrs. O. W. Beyerle and Mrs. R. F. Lyon.

Offered By THE ATLANTA CONSTITUTION in

The Game of Movie-Titles

CARTOON NO. 3

The correct title for Cartoon No. 3 can be found in this list: "While Paris Sleeps," "Union Depot," "Private Lives," "The Hatchet Man," "Blonde Crazy," "Monte Cristo," "Women of All Nations," "The Slow Freight," "Dance Team," "Grand Hotel," "Our Dancing Daughters," "Weary River," "Night Nurse," "Personal Maid," "Spirit of Notre Dame."

Here's How To Win

In The Constitution's Game of Movie Titles there are thirty cartoons similar to this one. With each cartoon is a list that includes the correct title for that particular cartoon. Your job is to name the movie title represented by each of the thirty cartoons.

Twenty Cash Prizes and the Buick you see above will be awarded entrants submitting correct or nearest correct lists of titles for the thirty cartoons. There's only one correct title for each cartoon. If you want to win $1,000.00 plus a $1,250.00 automobile, mail the coupon in the lower right-hand corner and get all thirty cartoons. See exactly what you are up against before you start.

There's no letter to write. Neatness doesn't count. Every member of the family can compete and win.

SUGAR.

NEW YORK, March 1.—Raw sugar was quiet today and in the absence of business prices were unchanged at 2-85 for spots. East Indian steadiness in futures was followed by reactions with the market closing at and later showed net gains of 1 to 2 points on covering and commission house buying.

The demand, however, was not so strong as in the previous year, and the failure of the spot market to show increased activity was disappointing to recent buyers.

May contracts for coffee selling at 0.94, declined to 0.80, while December sold off from 1.18 to 1.06, with final prices at the lowest of the season.

Approximate sales, 13,800 tons. March closed 0.81, May 0.89, July 0.96, September 1.02, December 1.18. The refined sugar market was quiet and unchanged at 4.15 for fine granulated.

100 Grady Doctors Differ Widely In Diagnosing Little Girl's Malady

BY T. K. JONES.

Almost a hundred members of Grady hospital's visiting staff Tuesday night considered the case of 8-year-old Daisy Waller. To many of them, her affliction—a painless muscular rigidity in body and limbs—is a strange one. To others it is not strange, and to one—a leading Atlanta dermatologist—it is obvious and more or less commonplace.

She is a victim, said the dermatologist, of scleroderma, which, according to a medical dictionary, is a "chronic indurated skin disease." "I think she could be sent home tomorrow and be none the worse off," said he.

Other staff members, however, questioned the positive diagnosis of the dermatologist. One suggested the condition probably developed from a spider bite; another hinted that it might be chronic tetanus; still another declared the symptoms indicate an acute progressive myositis ossificans.

The latter diagnosis, it was explained, has to do with inflammation of muscle tissues, which ultimately results in the muscles turning to bone. The disease is a rare one, only 51 cases having ever been reported, it was said.

In a review of the case given the staff by an internist it was revealed that little Daisy was admitted to the hospital February 5, after she had complained of a tenderness in her neck. Her temperature since that time has been virtually normal. She has experienced no pain, and contrary to reports previously published, is able to walk around the hospital ward, despite the rock-like rigidity in her muscles.

The case, it was said Tuesday, will be presented Thursday night to the Academy of Medicine on Prescott street.

The dermatologist whose definite diagnosis was given Tuesday night scored newspaper for having published details of the case. "It is regrettable that the papers should 'whop it up' and convey the impression that local doctors know nothing, when in reality the case is a simple one," he said.

LOWER LOAN RATE OFFERED BY HOME FINANCE SERVICE

A lower rate on loans up to three hundred dollars is now offered by the Home Finance Service, located at 216 Volunteer Building. These loans are made on furniture, automobiles and personal endorsements. The lower interest rate is not the only desirable feature of this service, however. The company is owned and operated by local people and they do away with the usual red tape connected with getting a loan. This enables them to make loans more quickly.

You can get complete information by phoning Main 5340, and if your loan is to be on furniture you can make application over the phone.

Home Finance Service is located at 216 Volunteer Building. The Volunteer Building is at 66 Luckie Street, just opposite the Piedmont Hotel. The location is convenient and the service is quick. You can get a loan today.

SIX RALLIES ARE HELD BY COUNTY CANDIDATES

Three More Meetings Scheduled for Tonight as Drive for Votes Grows Warmer

The 21 aspirants for the seven contested positions for which 45,000 Fulton county citizens are qualified to cast ballots in the county primary March 9, Tuesday night continued their drives for votes from six stumps and today will reopen hostilities at three others.

Departmental races continued to hold the center of attention as the seven-cornered contest for two positions on the Fulton county commission remained subsided.

Edwin F. Johnson, tax receiver, and his opponent, Guy A. Moore; J. Walton Simmons, clerk, and his opponent, B. C. "Tut" Broyles; Sheriff James L. Lowry and his four opponents; Mrs. Mabel Abbot MacNeill, treasurer, and her opponents, Mrs. Beulah Donohoo Manston and R. H. Conway; and W. S. Richardson, tax collector, and his opponent, A. C. Minihinnett, spoke or were represented on all the stumps.

The three meetings today are at Palmetto at 3 o'clock this afternoon; a Broyles rally at the Kimball House, sponsored by the 1932 Club and the Sixth Ward Civic League. Both the latter sessions will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

A. M. Corrie, one of the five aspirants for sheriff, Tuesday announced that Golden Field, overseas veteran of the World War, has been added to his ticket.

"Dough" in Bread Loaf Missed by Depositor

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 1. (AP)—Joe Law, a deputy in the county trustee's office, started to the bank with a loaf of bread he confidently believed contained $20,000 in what his associates called "dough." Two uniformed policemen walked beside him as an extra precaution.

When Law got to the bank he found the bread contained baker's dough instead of money.

He was on the verge of a collapse when he called his office to find he had departed with a loaf of bread someone had left in the office, and not the one filled with the "dough" for deposit.
